

SPIRIT!

Paige Headden, a senior who has been cheering since the seventh grade, smiles as she cheers on the War Hawk team. A good cheerleader must have a lot of spirit and enthusiasm for her team. This proves to be no challenge for Paige!

IT TAKES PRACTICE
