

The light at the end of the tunnel ... These seniors can finally see the end as May 28 draws near. The Class of 1993 anxiously counted the days until graduation.

You've got a friend . . . James Troupe, the luckless victim of a bike accident, makes the best of meeting his secret pal, Craig White. Secret Pal Day is fun for students of all ages.

"Bill Clinton faces so many pressing needs - improving the economy, cutting the deficit, reforming the health care and welfare systems, and protecting minority interests. President Clinton needs a lot of luck!"

— Mimi Werntz

- Amy Joyner, 7th

"My first year at Colleton Prep was really fun. The people are a lot nicer than at my old school." - Cindy Minton, 6th
