The Thirtieth Anniversary

The year 1997 marks a special place in the history of Colleton Prep. Academy as it signifies the school's thirtieth anniversary. Though the school has undergone some change over the years (such as name change in 1990) it is still devoted to its beliefs in academic excellence. We would like to congratulate the school on its anniversary and wish it luck in the future.

Four ninth grade girls socialize outside the high school during lunch.

Several members of the eighth grade walk to the gym for an assembly.

Ellis Upchurch, Caroline Hughes, and other second graders learn about Spanish with Mrs. Barrineau.
