

Mary Ellen and Stephanie get "jailed" at the Market Place.

Cara, Scotty, and Nicole hang out in Charleston.

"SUDDENLY.."

Suddenly:

The day is upon us, A day of new horizons
A day of many goodbyes
We've shared our laughs, We've shed our tears

Suddenly:

We ask ourselves Where'd they go?
Those thirteen years

In the beginning we thought this day would never come but looking back, the years flew by too fast in fact

Suddenly:

We wish we could go back to the days of learning
our ABC's (A-Z), colors,
Our numbers one by one

Days of playing in the sand
Red Rover, Red Rover hand in hand
Standing by the wall & running in the halls
Walk don't run

We heard them say

Things change so quickly & then fade away

Suddenly:

All those papers are over
All the tests are finished
& I find myself with a sudden emptiness

Suddenly:

We face the horizon & the direction of a new day

Knowing there's nothing else to say

Other than

With Love,

Farewell My Friend

Wendy and Melissa take out their frustrations on Brandon.
