

Terry, Scottie, B.J., and Charlie follow the crowd as they make their way to the market area .

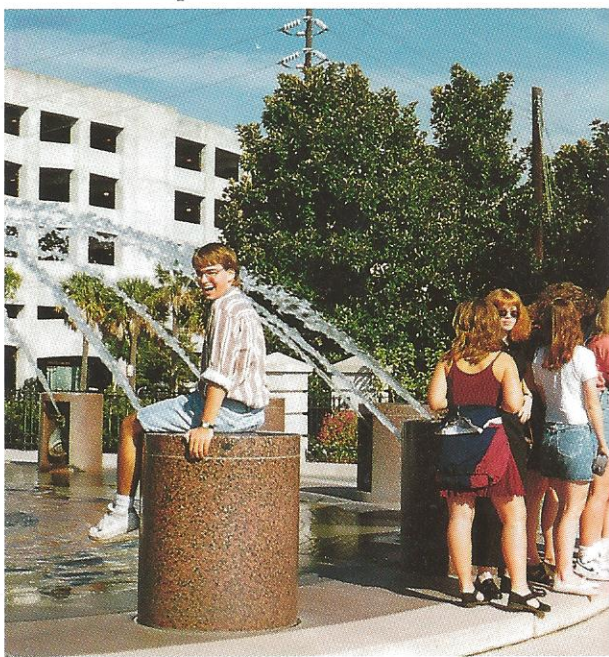

Seven of the seniors rejoin after walking around the market area. The students also went out to eat.

At the Waterfront Park, these seniors found the swings to be very relaxing after their walk from the parking garage.

Brandon keeps cool in the water fountains.

A Trip To Charleston . . .

On September 19, the class of 1997 took a break from school and made their way to Downtown Charleston for senior photo day. After arriving, the seniors walked to the Waterfront Park where they enjoyed the swings and the fountains. About thirty minutes later, they decided to find some more action. The market seemed to be the most desirable destination. On their way toward the market area, they viewed many Charleston shops. When they arrived at the market, they decided that it was time to eat. Some of the class ate at Applebee's while others ate at WildWings. Then, after eating, they went shopping at the market.