

Mrs. Fischer's students always work hard during math class.

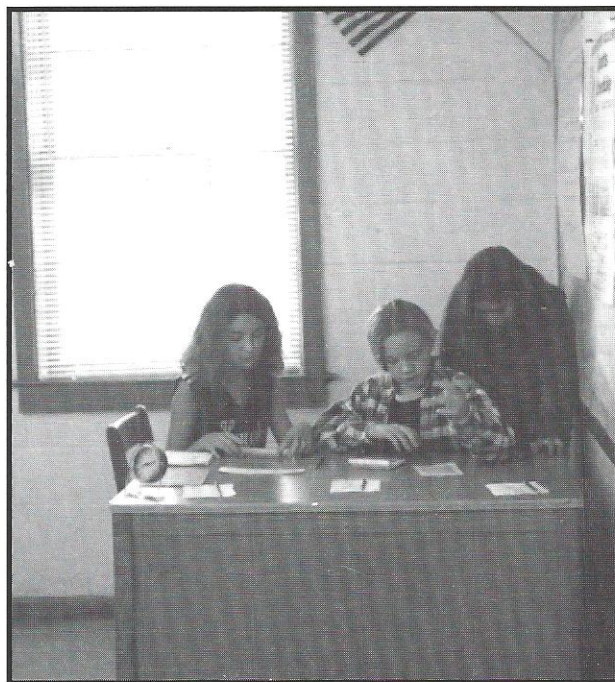

Walking back from lunch, these two boys prepare for the next class.

Mrs. Fischer explains to a student how Jason Hoats solved a math problem. Jason is prepared to answer any questions that may arise.

Terri-Lyn, Alison, and Samantha work together to finish the lunch tally before the bell rings.

These sixth grade boys use time during their lunch period to relax and have some fun.

