

Seniors

The Class of 1998

As the class of 1998 begins to think about graduation, they remember all the wonderful times they have spent together. They remember transforming the gym into Bourbon Street for Prom and End of the Year Parties at Nicki's house. As everybody grew older, friendships grew stronger; the 18 graduating members of the class of 1998 will remain friends forever.