

Being a teacher or faculty member can be a very demanding experience. Papers to grade, interims and class preparations consume much of teachers time. Those members of the faculty involved in administration were kept busy with the daily tasks of tardies, absentees, and detentions. Nevertheless, teaching has a lighter side as well. Lunch in the faculty lounge gave way to many fun conversations.

Mrs. Daniels orders books to stock the CPA library.

Mr. Wolff is the new headmaster at CPA this year.

Mrs. Buckner teaches her class a lesson out of the book.