

Story Book Parade

Every year the library at CPA sponsors a storybook parade for grades K-5. The kids dress up as a character from a story they've read, and parade onto the football field to be judged and given prizes. It encourages reading for all ages.

All the students gather on the football field before they parade through the school buildings.

Nicholas Fagnoli participated as the boy from "How to Eat Fried Worms".

Mrs. Daniels introduces each of the students during the contest.

These third graders wait for their names to be announced.
