

Ready, Set, Serve!

The 1997 Warhawk Girls' Tennis Team had a tough season. The ages of the players were extremely young but lead by Junior Veteran Chris Zipperer the team gained a lot of experience. Their record ended as 1 and 4 but all the players agree that they had a lot of fun.

Caroline Henderson and Chris Zipperer practice their serves.

Mary Beth Bolt, one of the youngest additions to the tennis team, gains tips on paying attention to the ball.

Coach Emmy Zipperer helps Meggie Hulseay with her swing.

