

1997 State Champs

The 1997 War Hawk Baseball team was on a mission. Led by Coach Bob Stein the War Hawks were not going to accept anything less than a state championship. With five key transfers to an already established team they were destined for the school's first championship in 17 years. After knockin off Avalon Academy in 2 consecutive games the Hawks accomplished their mission as State Champs.

Bubba Brown, the CPA pitcher, strikes out another batter.

Hard hitting was one of the keys to a championship team
