

Bump, Set, Spike

Thee 1997 Volleyball Team was one of the varsity girls' teams that was hurt by the lack of high school girls the participated in athletics. The team was very young and consist of only 2 juniors, 5 freshmen and 4 eighth graders. Nonetheless, the volleyball players and their coach Rhonda McClure had a fun season and learned many valuable skills for the following years.

The team celebrates their first win.

Ashley Smith scores another point for the Hawks.

Captain Jess Clamp gives the line-up to the referee.

