

The Air Up There

Since there was no J.V. Girls team this year, the B-team Girls gained advantages this year that they haven't had in the past. They wore the J.V. uniforms, got to practice every-day, and were coached by Jerry Hughes. The players learned to work together as a team and ended with a successful season of play.

In the locker room the girls celebrate their first victory.

Sarah Katherine Tuten practices her free throws during warm-ups.

Eileen Campbell takes the ball to the basket for a lay-up.

