Shoot for the moon. Even if you miss it, you will land among the stars. We are very proud of you.

Love,
Mom and Dad

To The Class of 2000:

I don't usually give unsolicited advice,
But this seems to me to be a special case.
So you've gone and done the deed without the dice;
Accomplishment not Chance you met face to face.

My warmest congratulations please accept.
This is your latest accomplishment,
But it will not be your last - I bet.
For perseverance and diligence provide performance.

Think of graduation as one milestone
With many mile-markers ahead on the way.
Resourceful as you are, don't moan and groan
Not all achievements are made in a day.

So, as your teacher, I bid adieu.

Debra J. McConnell

P.S. I'm not a poet, and I know it!
I can teach it, but I can't compose it.

Although a new century is here
Remember the old words of Ecclesiastes 3:

"To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven:
A time to be born, and a time to die;
A time to plant, and a time to pluck up
that which is planted;
A time to kill, and a time to heal;
A time to breakdown, and a time to buildup;
A time to weep, and a time to laugh;
A time to mourn, and a time to dance;
A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together;
A time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;
A time to get, and a time to lose;
A time to keep, and a time to cast away;
A time to rend, and a time to sew;
A time to keep silence, and a time to speak;
A time to love, and a time to hate;
A time of war, and a time of peace."

Goodbye Seniors!!!
