

None of us will ever forget where we were on September 11, 2001 when we heard the disasterous news about our nation, our world. Nothing could have prepared us for that initial shock of terrorism in America. All of our lives have been forever changed by the events of that day. As our country pulls together, we remember how truly lucky we are to call ourselves Americans. We will press on as a nation, but we will never forget.

“One country, under God, indivisible...”
