

Jason,

It seems like just yesterday you were flipping your pacifier for everyone and now you are all grown up. I am so proud of you. I am going to miss you when you leave to go to college. I have enjoyed watching you grow up and become such a fine young man. I wish you the best of luck in whatever you decide to do. I am happy that you are going to live with your brother and go to college there. I'm glad ya'll get along so well. I love you very much.

Love,
Mom

G-Money,

You have supplied me with such happiness throughout your life. First of all graduating and going to college. Then there is the 22-0 J.V. basketball season, the baseball and football State Championships. Congratulations and I am going to miss having you around. Good luck in the future.

Love,
Dad

Jay,

You will never know how proud I am to have a brother with a good head on his shoulders like you do. You're not only my brother, but my best friend. I love you so much, and always do what makes you happy in life.

Love,
Bubba

Wesley,

Last but not least.

It's been fun.

"Thanks for the memories"
