

STORY BOOK PARADE

Story Book Parade is a C.P.A. tradition that includes all students in kindergarten through fifth grade. Each student brings to life his favorite character, whether it be a fictional or biographical character. Parents, teachers, and students assemble at the football stadium to watch the parade of participants in their costumes. Student Council members assist Mrs. Linder with the event. The highlight of the day for the high school students is the parade of participants through the upper school hallways.

Top: You may think these are Colleton Prep third graders, but they are Eliza Thornberry, Belle from Beauty and the Beast, Junie B. Jones, Hollywood Hannah, Lilo, and a softball player. Who'd da "thunk it."

Above: Mrs. Strickland's fourth grade class clowns around in their classroom before entering the football stadium.
