

Field Day

During Field Day students have the chance to display their athletic ability. They participate in different activities such as relay races, sack races, and tug of war. Field Day helps students in grades Kindergarten through Fifth grade to understand that exercise can be fun and beneficial, and it encourages students to make physical activity a part of their everyday lives.

Top: Graham Drawdy, Austin Cummings, and Donald Rizer enjoy the shade during the Field Day activities.

Above: Run Cole, Run! Cole Hogan takes the lead in the sprint competition.

Above: Ellis Ann Frank gets a piggy back ride from her secret pal, Mallory Hogan, at the Field Day luncheon. She was delighted to have such a terrific pal!

Left: Mrs. Crosby and Johnathan Rizer wait in anticipation for Dylan Nettles turn in the relay race. Dylan knew he was the only hope for his team. The outcome-Victory!