State Champs... Again!!

Coach Miller brings home the trophy for the second year in a row!

The War Hawks completed the first ever undefeated season in the history of the school. The War Hawk Express rolled through Charleston to run over the Cavaliers in Johnson Hagood Stadium at the Citadel. The Hawks' defense amassed 4 interceptions, 2 fumble recoveries, and a touchdown, while the offense accumulated over 250 yards rushing and 4 touchdowns. In keeping with War Hawk tradition, Coach Miller was drenched with ice cold water as he hugged Coach Burttram.

Right: Quarterback Clay Smoak hands the ball off in an attempt to make a War Hawk first down. He was successful in his effort.
