TALON

Center: Hawk Boosters Doug Bolt and Eddie Adkins are always on the job at CPA.

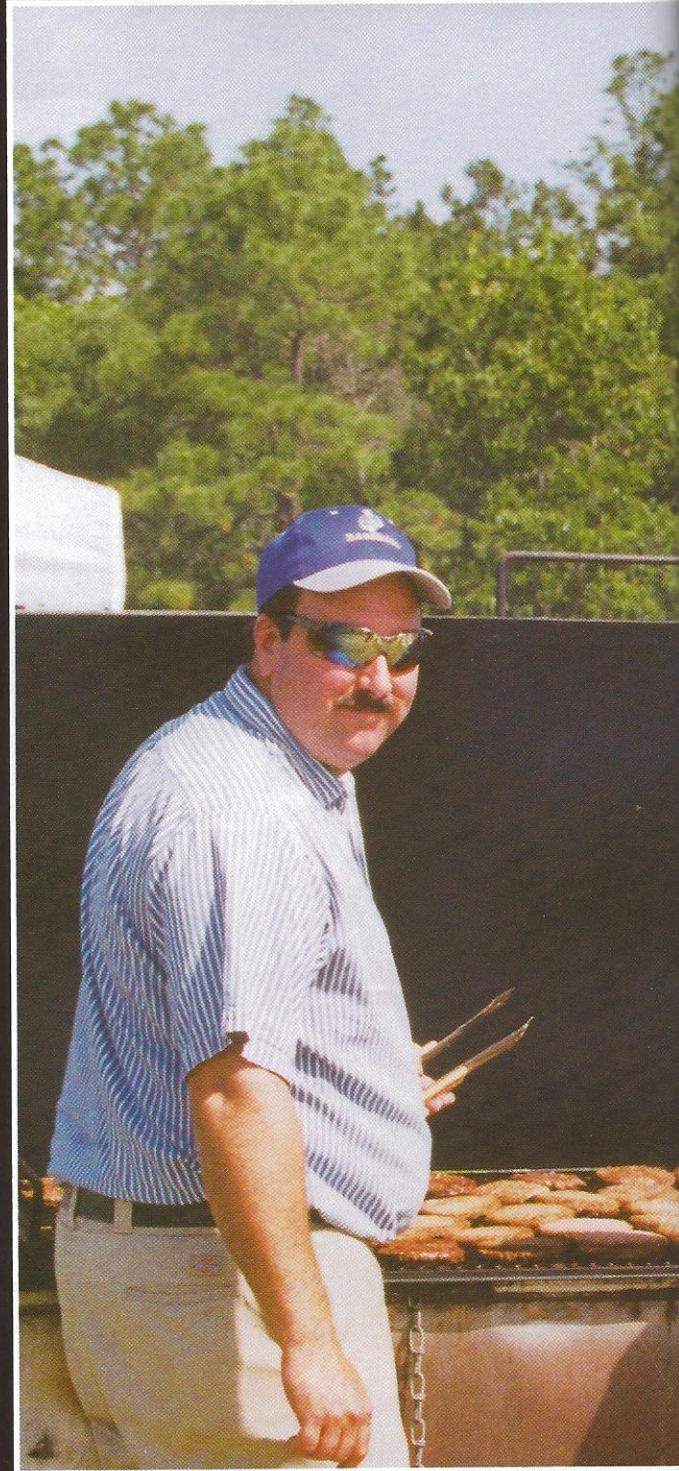

Top: Joy von Kaenel is happy to assist in any locale. We couldn't get along without her!

Students, teachers, alumni, family, and friends are all glad to call CPA "home." It's that warm fuzzy feeling you get when you know you're surrounded by love and people who truly care. It "takes a village" to teach, raise, and nurture children . We are fortunate to have many people who dedicate their time, talents, and resources to our school.

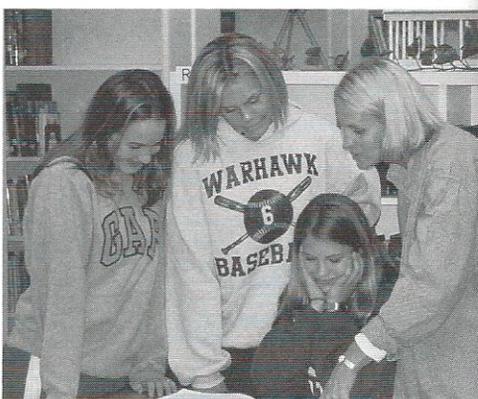

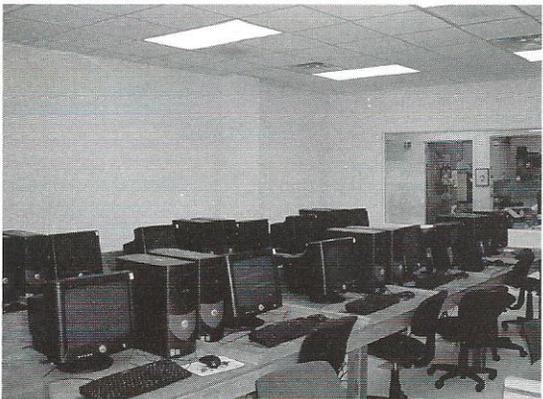

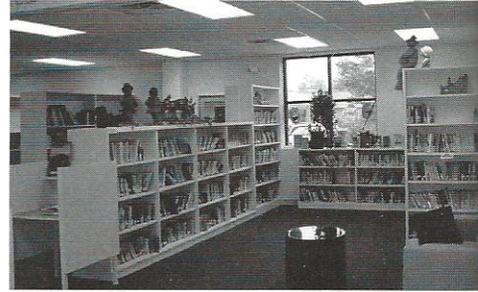

We wish to honor all the volunteers who support our "village" by dedicating the 2004 Talon to them. It would be impossible to list or photograph all the people who contribute to the CPA environment because there are so many. However, we know who you are and we SALUTE you.

MEDIA CENTER OPENS

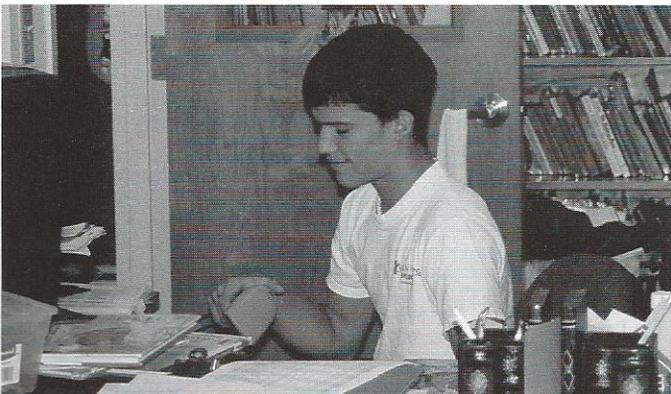

The new Media Center is a dream come true for the rapidly growing Colleton Prep. The Media Center has a vaulted ceiling and the walls display colorful pictures of story book scenes. It contains over three thousand square feet of educational space that is divided into three separate educational areas.

The "chair area" is surrounded by the children's library. The meeting area is used for lectures and teachers' meetings; there is a pull down screen for use with the overhead projector. There is also a computer lab used for enrichment and high school classes. We are delighted to have this new addition to our campus.

The Graduating Class of 2004

Right: The class of 2004 shows off their close friendship at Prom 2003. The grass was green and the girls were pretty.

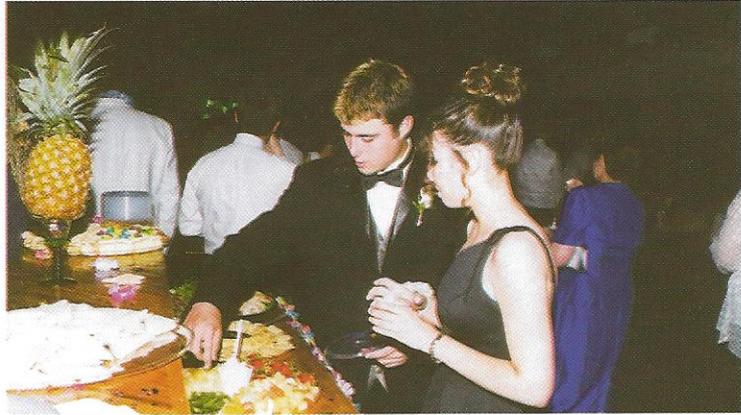

The Hawaiian Prince & Princess

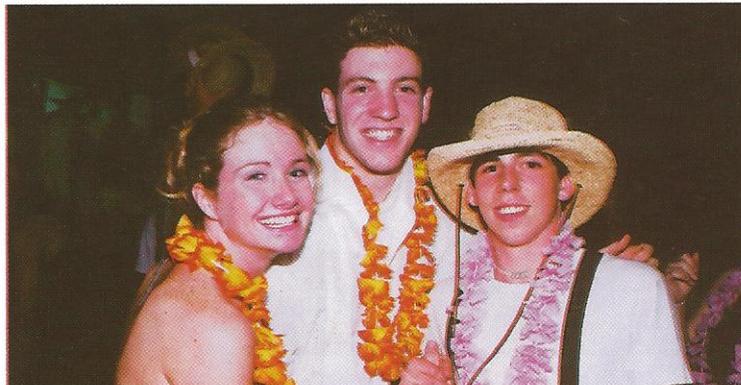

Above: Abbie Davis and Travis Herndon are the King and Queen of Prom 2003.

Right: Patrick Hamilton, Emily McKay, and Jerel Hawkins take a break from their intense dancing. The prom was held off campus at the Coastal Outback building.

The three faces....

The romantic ...

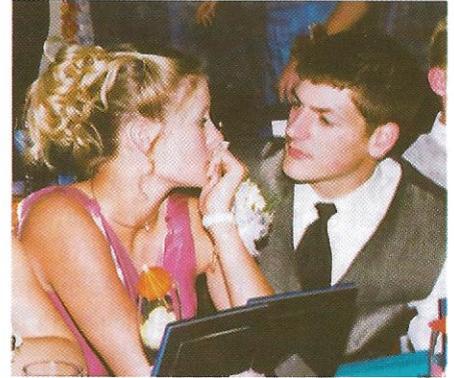

Jordan Houck and Justin Pinckney enjoy the Hawaiian atmosphere of the dance.

The funny...

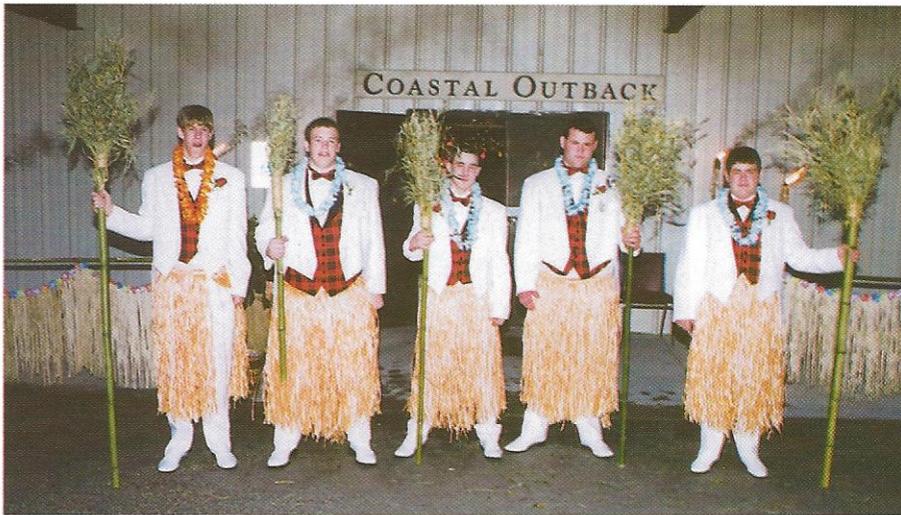

Kristen Carter and Jack Beasley are "shakin' their tail feathers!"

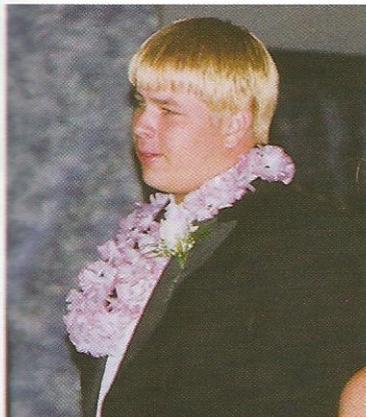

NOT QUITE SO SERIOUS...

Courtney Johnson and Gator Lemacks gaze into each other's eyes.

Left: Clint Benton steps away from the dance floor to take a quick look at the action

Right: Prom 2003 fever: CATCH IT!

STORY BOOK PARADE

Story Book Parade is a C.P.A. tradition that includes all students in kindergarten through fifth grade. Each student brings to life his favorite character, whether it be a fictional or biographical character. Parents, teachers, and students assemble at the football stadium to watch the parade of participants in their costumes. Student Council members assist Mrs. Linder with the event. The highlight of the day for the high school students is the parade of participants through the upper school hallways.

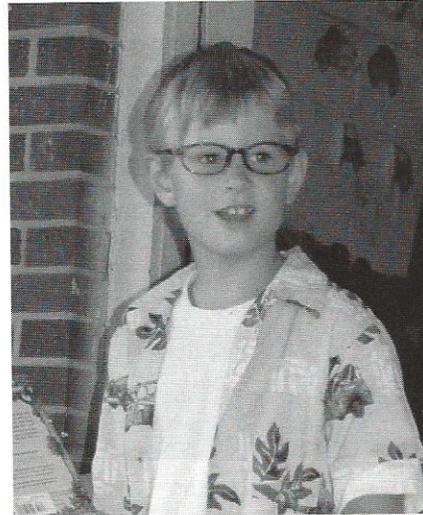

Top: You may think these are Colleton Prep third graders, but they are Eliza Thornberry, Belle from Beauty and the Beast, Junie B. Jones, Hollywood Hannah, Lilo, and a softball player. Who'd da "thunk it."

Field Day

During Field Day students have the chance to display their athletic ability. They participate in different activities such as relay races, sack races, and tug of war. Field Day helps students in grades Kindergarten through Fifth grade to understand that exercise can be fun and beneficial, and it encourages students to make physical activity a part of their everyday lives.

Top: Graham Drawdy, Austin Cummings, and Donald Rizer enjoy the shade during the Field Day activities.

Above: Ellis Ann Frank gets a piggy back ride from her secret pal, Mallory Hogan, at the Field Day luncheon. She was delighted to have such a terrific pal!

Left: Mrs. Crosby and Johnathan Rizer wait in anticipation for Dylan Nettles turn in the relay race. Dylan knew he was the only hope for his team. The outcome-Victory!

Spirit Week

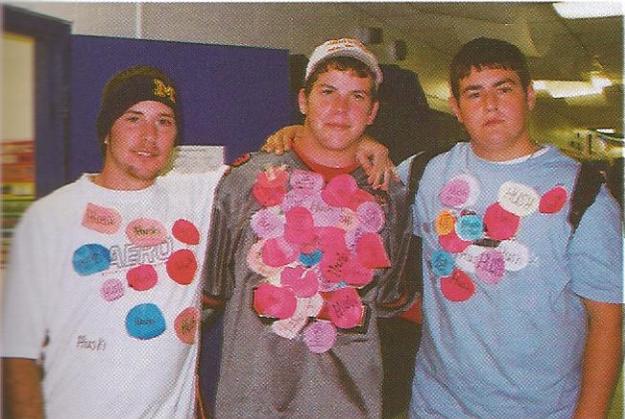

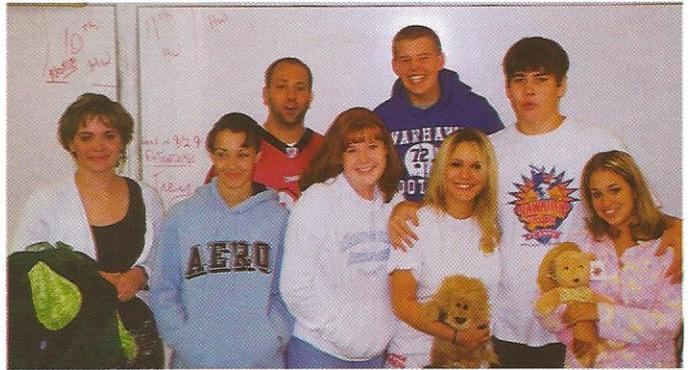

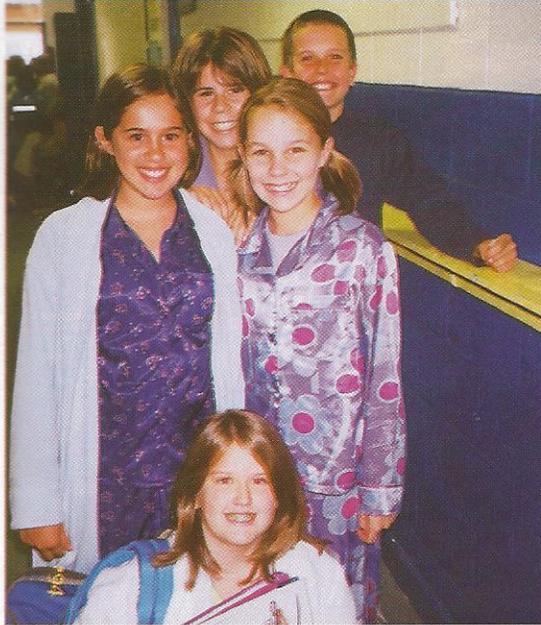

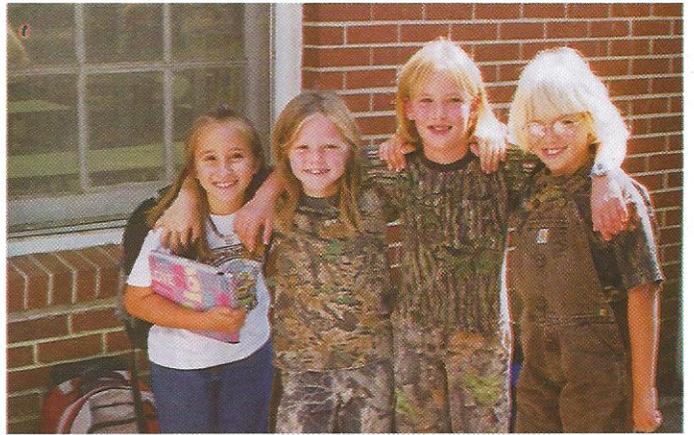

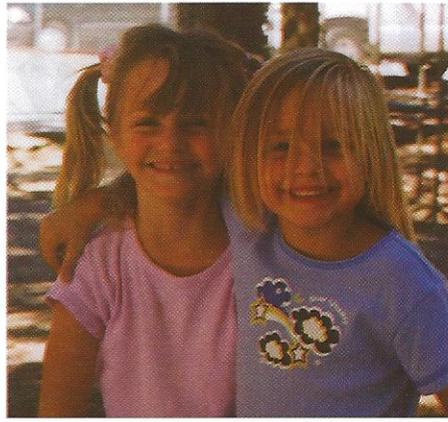

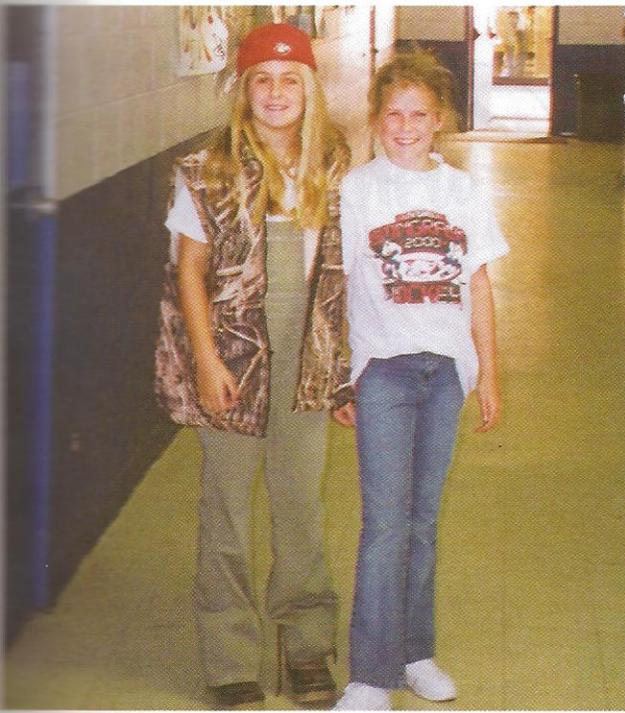

The week before the big Homecoming game is always reason for excitement and enthusiasm in the halls of CPA. Teachers and students alike enjoy the out-of-the-ordinary situations that the week brings to campus. Students see it as a break in the monotony of the weeks. Teachers may not view it the same.

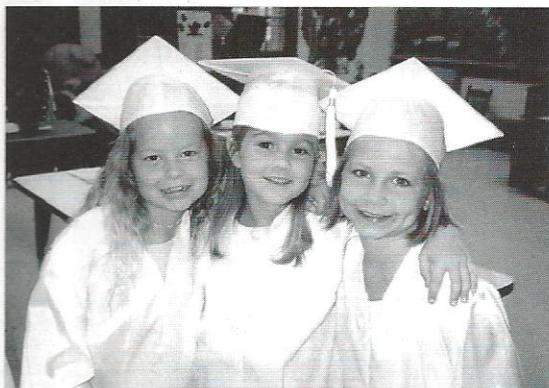

This year the theme days included pajama, tacky, redneck, college, and blue and white. The highlight of the week is the pep rally on Friday afternoon. Each grade participates in a spirit contest and a banner contest. Mock Homecoming Queen is also selected. Of course, the grand finale is the big game.

We all enjoy the opportunity to relax the dress code. This is the week to be yourself and let the creative energy flow. It's quite obvious through this grouping of pictures that the entire group at CPA participated in the festivities.

Graduation 2003

Top: Colleton Prep Senior Class of 2003 relinquish their position as Top Hawks on Graduation Day.

Left: Canyon Crosby, Kingsley Roda, and Mikael Odum enjoy one final moment as Little Hawks on Kindergarten Graduation Day.

Right: The Senior Boys wait patiently in the hallway for their turn to walk across the stage.

Bottom: The Kindergarten Class of 2003.

"I Never Knew You Were a Pick-Up Man"

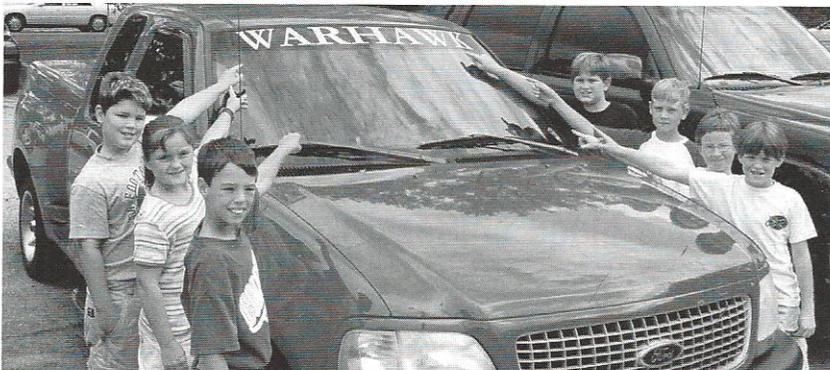

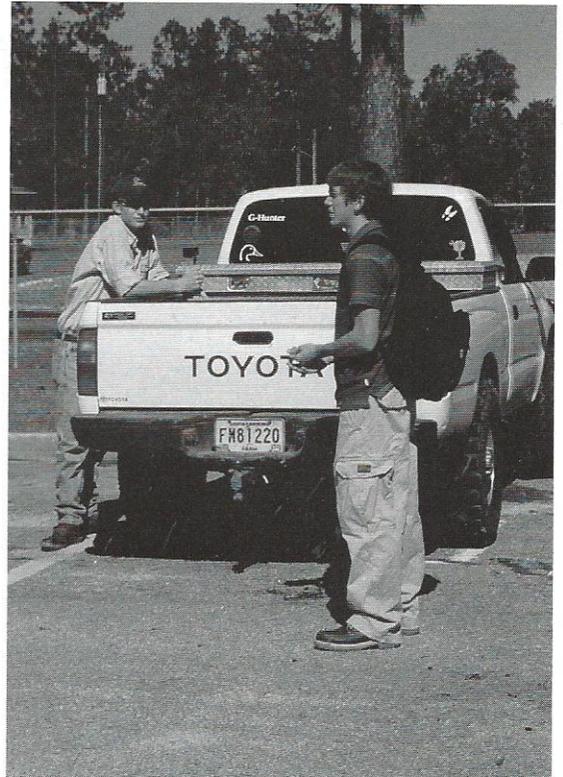

Top: John Hickman anxiously exits the parking lot in his truck at 2:31 p.m. Wow! It's amazing what a lift kit can do.

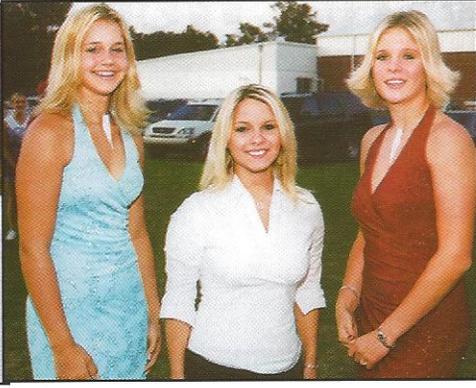

Left: "Billy Bob" watches over the parking lot with the insightful eye of a hawk.

Right: Joseph Williams and Tyler Odum discuss the day's events in the parking lot by Tyler's truck.

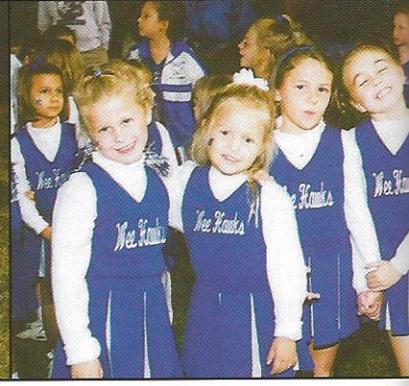

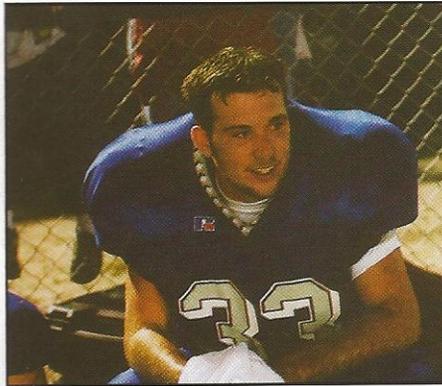

Bottom: These kids point out that Jerel Hawkins' "Red War Hawk" truck is the most appealing in the parking lot.

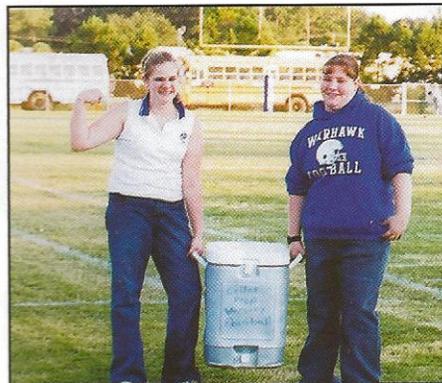

Coming Home

War Hawk spirit is alive and well.

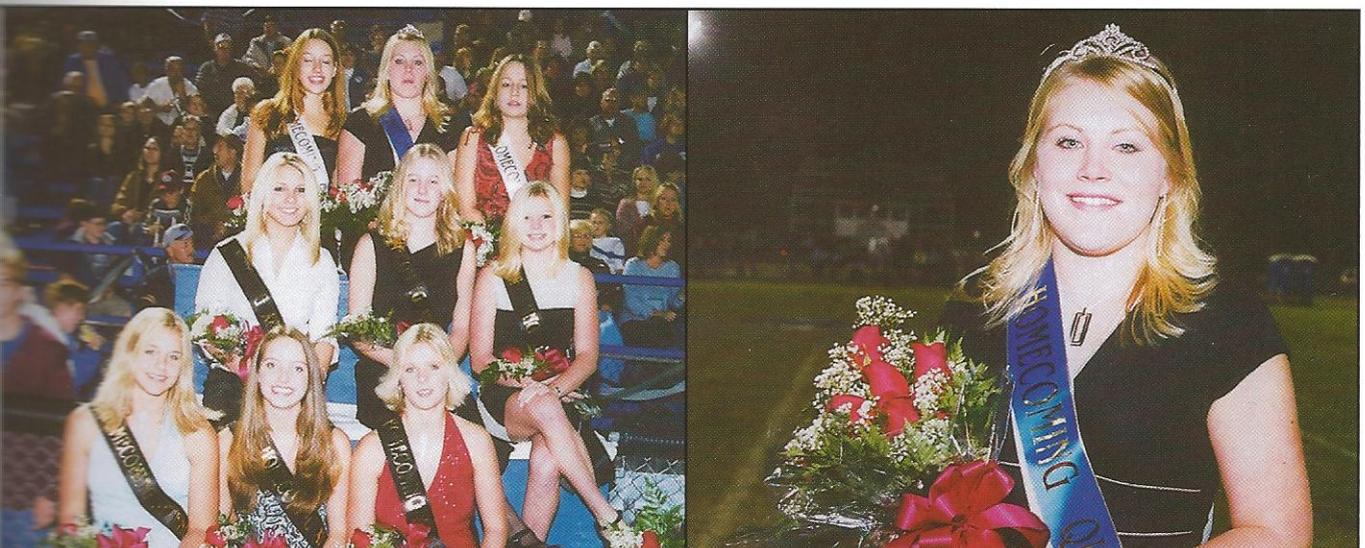

Thanks for helping us make these memories CPA!

That blue blood shines through in all we do.

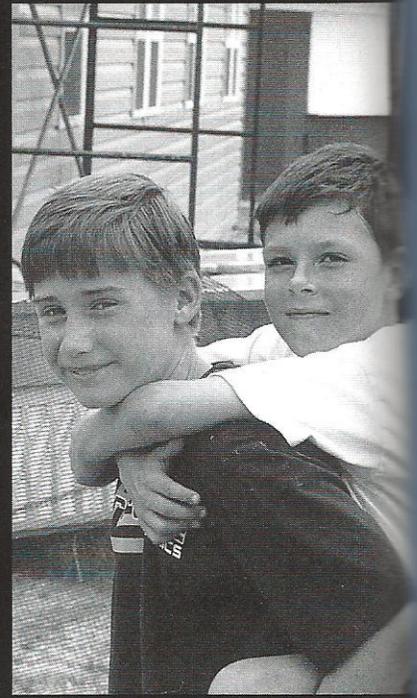

The War Hawk express is coming at you.

Mallory Hogan is crowned 2003 Homecoming Queen.

Rilee Anne Crosby

Rilee Anne,
The years have passed so very fast. Remember whatever you choose to do, keep Jesus in your heart, and he will lead the way. Just remember, drive my car, wear my clothes, and be just like Mommie. I haven't seen a cartwheel in a long time. I haven't seen a pretty bow in a long time. I haven't seen lace and frills in a long time. But what I have seen is a great daughter. We are so proud of you, just be strong and don't get frightened. You have a life full of opportunities waiting for you. You will always be Daddy and Mommie's Little Roo-Roo.

Lehe,

When you were born, we did not realize how quickly time would pass. We are so proud of the young man that you have become and are amazed at the things that you have accomplished.

Now as this chapter in your life closes and a new one opens, the possibilities that the future holds for you are endless. Know that you can be anything that you want to be and always trust in God for guidance.

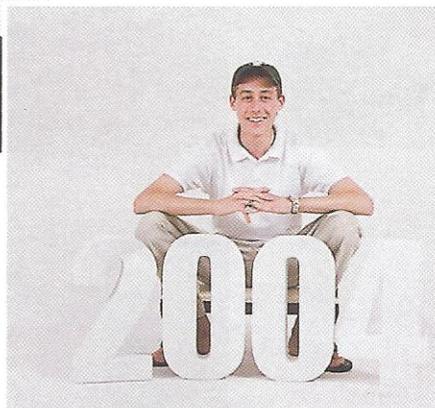

Remember, we'll love you forever, we'll like you for always, as long as we're living, our son you'll be.

We love you very much,

Cassandra Marie Hill

Cassy,

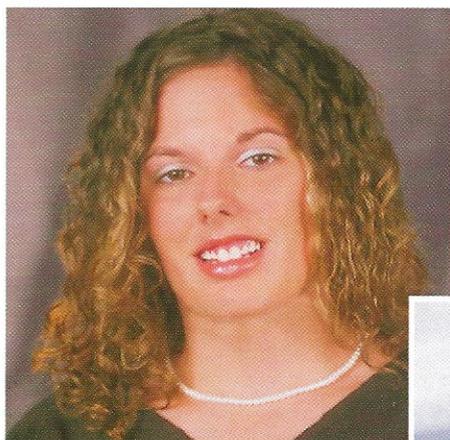

It was only yesterday that our pretty little girl started kindergarten, and now we have a beautiful young woman graduating from high school. You have always been the sunshine that brightened our days and warmed our hearts. Now that you are preparing to expand your horizons and explore new places, the world is about to become brighter and warmer for everyone you touch. Knowing this is the only thing that makes your leaving bearable. Never settle for second best; set your sights on what you want and go for it.

We love you,
Mom and Dad

Hey Cassy,

I just wanted to tell you how much I love you and care for you. We have been through a lot together over the years, and I have learned what family is all about. I want you to know no matter what I will always be there for you!! I love you very much!

It's hard to believe that your high school graduation is upon us. It seems like just yesterday I was holding your hand walking you into class for the first day of kindergarten. Boy, have we had a lot of fun together!!! I am so proud of you and all that you have accomplished. You have always strived to do your very best in everything. Thanks for giving me such wonderful memories to cherish and filling my life with such incredible joy and pride. I love you so very much and I thank God each day for you and all that you stand for. I can hardly wait to see what the future holds for you.

SENIORS

AT THEIR BEST... AT THEIR WORST!

1. Joe once again is caught between two girls.

2. Gator and Shane get in trouble with their feminine side. And no it's not spirit week.

3. Justin intentionally slips off his board in an attempt to show off his back muscles.

4. Rilee bounces into the air in joy.

5. Preston shows off his shirt collar.

6. Shane exhibits his passion for Spanish by raising his hand for a question.

7. The senior class diligently works to raise money for prom.

8. Young Dillon constructs a short poem which he will later read in front of the class.

9. Dillon's classmates take advantage once again of his short temper.

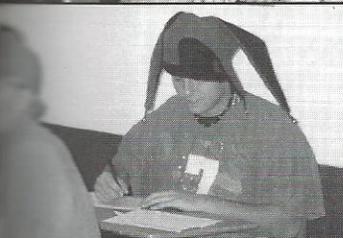

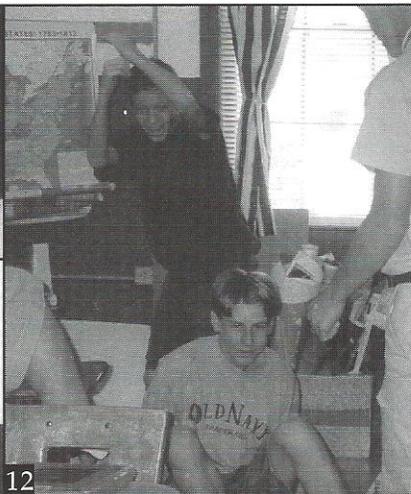

10. Mallory, Kristen, Andrea, and Emily show their school spirit on Tacky Day.

11. Nothing complements one's apparel more than a jackel hat and a straw.

12. Justin is full of embarrassment as he is caught in the middle of a fight.

13. Young Perry displays his stylish nature.

14. Jason reveals his love for kids on Secret Pal Day.

Now

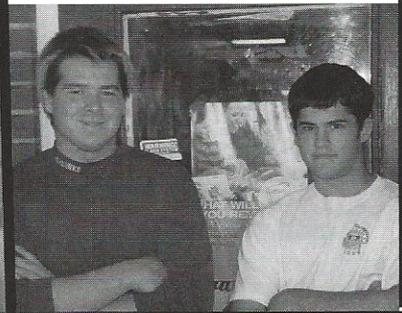

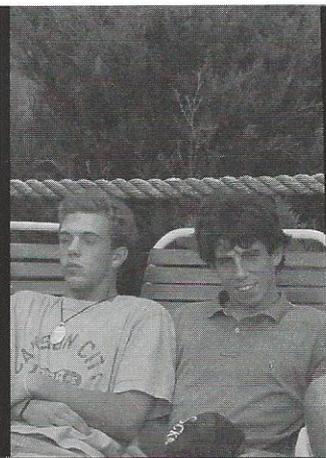

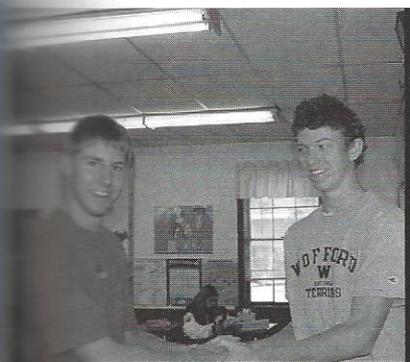

My how the years have gone by. It seems like only yesterday that the class of 2004 was starting Kindergarten. My how they've grown. Some of us have changed while others stayed the same.

Then

Can you tell who has changed for the better?

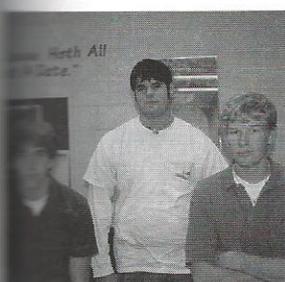

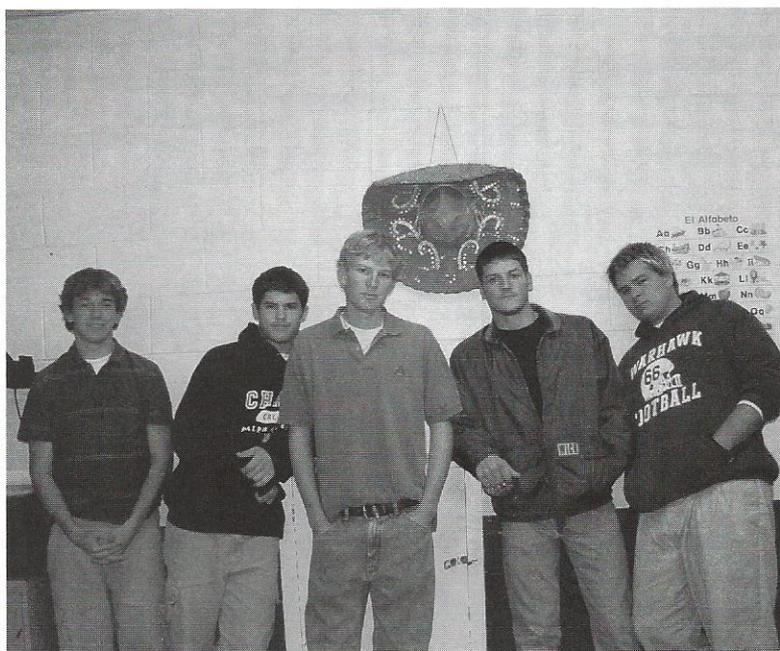

Or do you think that they haven't turned out so well? It's all in the eyes of the beholder!

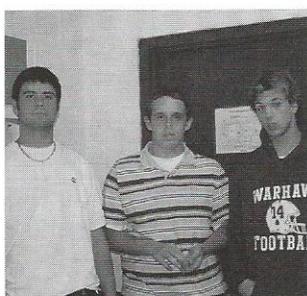

ALL THESE BOYS HAVE PROVEN TO BE TRUE FRIENDS THROUGH THICK AND THIN!!!

Joe, Cory, Ty, Gator, and Clint pose together. They must be up to something.

Eilee Anne and Cassy pose as the best friends they really are!!

The Beginning

What you should know
 Before this poem begins
 Everyone has always said
 That graduation is the end
 But of course you can see
 That it really isn't true
 Graduation is the time
 To start something new
 We've always been so safe
 In our protective little ball
 Never having the chance
 To really trip and fall
 We've hung onto each other
 And memories of the past
 But now comes our time
 To finally shine at last
 We will always remember
 The many tears we've cried
 And all we've overcome
 Standing side by side
 Now we're going separate ways
 And sometimes it seems real sad
 But we never shall forget
 The times we all have had
 What we may consider
 Learning all we've known
 We've actually been building
 Our foundation of stone
 All that we have done
 And all that we will do
 Will always reflect back
 On the one thing that's true
 No matter what's before us
 Or how the road bends
 It's what keeps us going
 The support of our friends

The Beautiful People

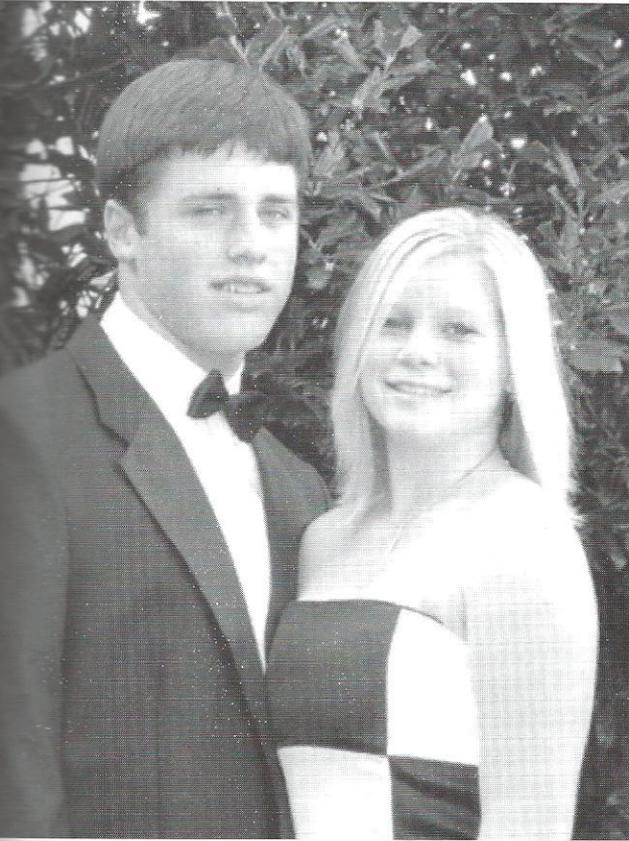

Mr. and Miss Talon, Jordan Houck and Justin Pinckney. Jordan is a sophomore and Justin is a senior.

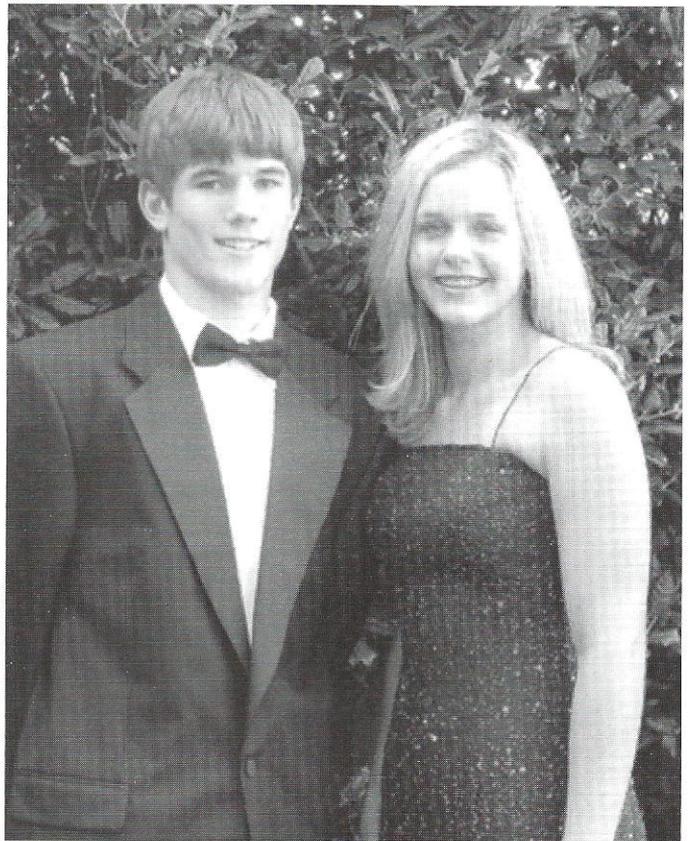

Mr. and Miss Senior, Rilee Ann Crosby and Justin Pinckney.

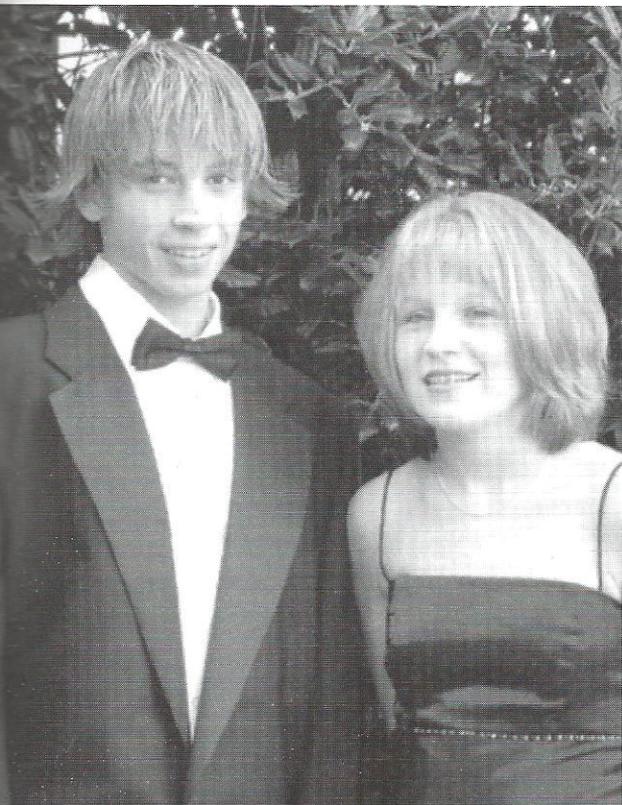

Mr. and Miss Junior, Christina Babb and Seath Robertson.

Mr. and Miss Sophomore, Lee Odum and Brandon Purvis

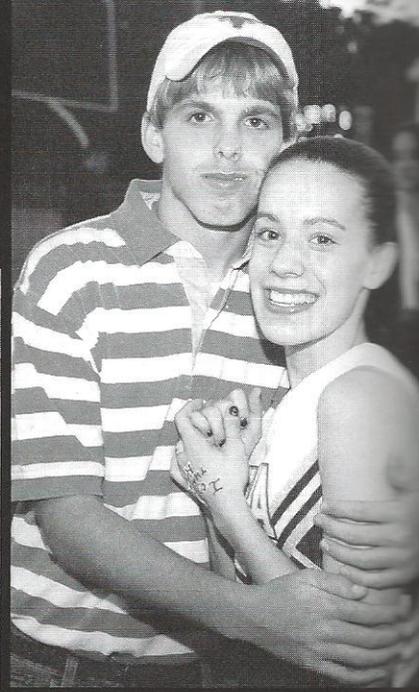

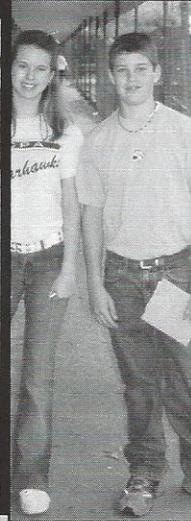

Mr. and Miss Freshman, Michelle Gruber and Gus White

Mr. and Miss Eighth Grade, Amanda Fleming and Jesse Riddle

Students are selected by their peers for the honor of "Mr. and Miss" from each grade. Each class votes on one male and one female to represent it. Mr. and Miss Talon are the top beauty honors and the entire high school votes from a field of nominees from grades nine through twelve. The students are then asked to wear a formal outfit so that beautiful photos can be made of this outstanding group. This year these pictures were taken by Mr. Jimmy Syfrett of Syfrett Studio of Walterboro. Mr. Chuck Bailey of Bailey's Men's Wear was kind enough to loan us the tuxedo.

State Champs... Again!!

Coach Miller brings home the trophy for the second year in a row!

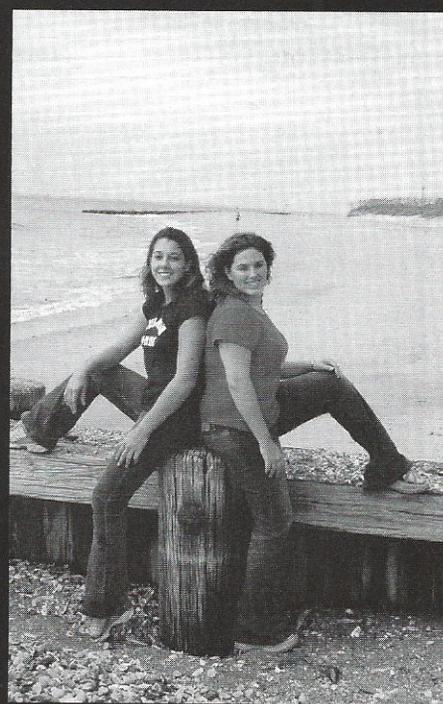

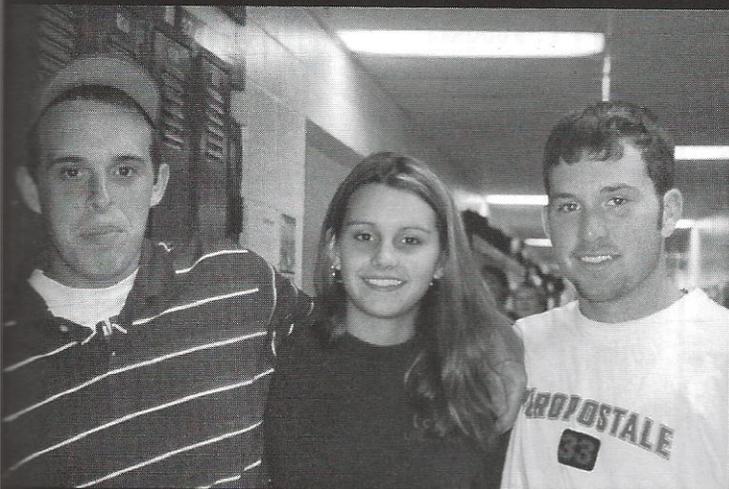

The War Hawks completed the first ever undefeated season in the history of the school. The War Hawk Express rolled through Charleston to run over the Cavaliers in Johnson Hagood Stadium at the Citadel. The Hawks' defense amassed 4 interceptions, 2 fumble recoveries, and a touchdown, while the offense accumulated over 250 yards rushing and 4 touchdowns. In keeping with War Hawk tradition, Coach Miller was drenched with ice cold water as he hugged Coach Burttram.

Right: Quarterback Clay Smoak hands the ball off in an attempt to make a War Hawk first down. He was successful in his effort.

Gator,

*I don't know how to start but I guess I'll try deep down inside my heart
I could never say goodbye!*

*No one ever knew that we would be together
but my dream came true and I want to be with you forever!*

*I didn't think it would last but now I know
a lot of things are in the past and now our true feelings show!*

I just want to say I Love You and I hope it'll last forever but we both know now that we belong together!

*Congratulations!
Courtney*

"Our memories of yesterday will last a lifetime. We'll take the best forget the rest, and someday we'll find these are the best of times" -Styx

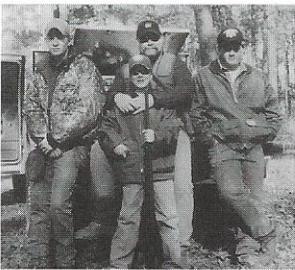

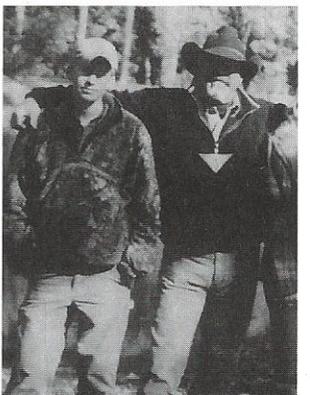

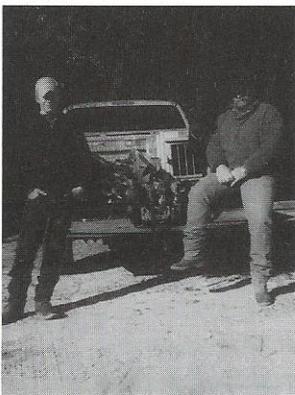

Emily,

I think this quote pretty much sums it up. We've been through a lot over the years. Both good and bad memories have been made that we'll probably remember forever. Looking back now, I wouldn't change a thing because I've realized that who we are is a result of all the good and bad choices we've made and what we've learned from them. I think this year we all learned that people change, whether they admit it or not. We've both laughed, cried, and yelled a lot. But I have to say that there are way more good times that stick out in my mind than the bad. You've been my best friend for years, and even though things change, you will always be my best friend. Always remember who you are and know that everything happens for a reason: what's meant to be, will be... and what's not meant to be, won't. I'll love you always Em. You are my best friend.

Love,
Meg
