In Memoriam

Bruce Hensley, JCCA Class of 1982, departed our world on January 22, 2006. Bruce was born March 21, 1964 and transferred to John C. Calhoun his sophomore year (1979). He was a photographer for the Talon staff, was active in the French Club, played the trumpet in the band, and was in the Broadcast Club. He enjoyed being a powderpuff cheerleader and was chosen to be a senior superlative.

Bruce was a proud alumnus of our school and will be missed by the many lives he touched including his wife, Mary and son, Ryan. His family and friends from South Carolina to Missouri will treasure the fond memories of special times shared with him.
