

Michelle,
Wow!!

Time has flown and I can't believe my Baby Girl is graduating. You have always made me so proud. I thank God everyday for blessing me with a beautiful loving daughter like you. You are blessed with so many gifts. You always have accomplished anything you set your mind to do. Being independent and always accomplishing the goals you set gives me peace that the decisions you make about college and your future will be the right ones. You are not only beautiful on the outside but that smile shows that inner beauty you have within you. You went from my little beauty queen starting pageants at 6 months old to a very determined athelete at age 9. You always give 100% in whatever you do and you never accept failure. This is why I know you will be successful in whatever you choose to do with your future. Hold your head up high and let God lead you down the right path and I am sure your dreams will come true. Your Mom will always be here for you whatever the need may be. I thank you so much for being my daughter, my friend, and always being there for your little brother Michael. Congratulations on your accomplishments.

"You Deserve The Best
Love Always,
Mom
