

Cam Taylor

Cameron,

It just seems like it was yesterday, I was taking you to your first day of school. But now it's your last day of high school. Cameron, you have made me so proud of you. I can remember when the doctor told me I was going to have twins. I thought to myself, "how am I going to make it with two babies?" Now I look back on these eighteen years of good times and some bad and say to myself, "how would I have made it without two babies?" Cameron, you are the best. Just follow your dreams and make them come true. I love you with all my heart.

Mom

Cam,

You know you're my favorite... cuz you so cute! We've been through a lot in the past few years; you've become a young man that I can be proud of and that was my intention all along. You've been a permanent part of my life for so long I can't remember what life was like before you guys came along. It wasn't God's plan for me to be your mother, but I hope that I have been a good "stand in" when you've needed me. I know you're unsure about the future, but God has it all planned out...let it happen His way! Your Daddy and I love you so much,

Mrs. Jodi
