

Teachers of the Year

Mr. Ellis began an exciting and new tradition this school year. Three very special and deserving teachers were selected by their peers for "Teacher of the Year" awards. One teacher from each of our Lower, Middle and Upper schools was selected. Mr. Ellis announced the winners and presented them with a plaque at the awards ceremony in the gym on March 2, 2007. They will represent Colleton Prep in the SCISA "Teacher of the Year" competition. Each recipient was showered with roses, gifts and congratulatory words. We appreciate the hard work and dedication of all our faculty and feel so fortunate to have such compassionate and inspiring teachers.

Donna Rizer teaches fifth grade language arts and social studies. She is also the lower school lead teacher and has 2 children at CPA, Emma and Donald.

Betty Fischer teaches eighth grade literature. She also serves as the advisor for the National Honor Society and the Junior National Honor Society. Her 3 children, Mary Ellen, Karen and Richard are all CPA graduates.

Eleanor Carmical teaches English to ninth and eleventh graders. She is known for her love of books and sharing it with her students just as she did with her own two sons.
