

Cole

I am going to miss you. I'm taking your room, haha just kidding, but I am going to take your dog.
Love, Dondi
I am really going to take your dog.

Cole,

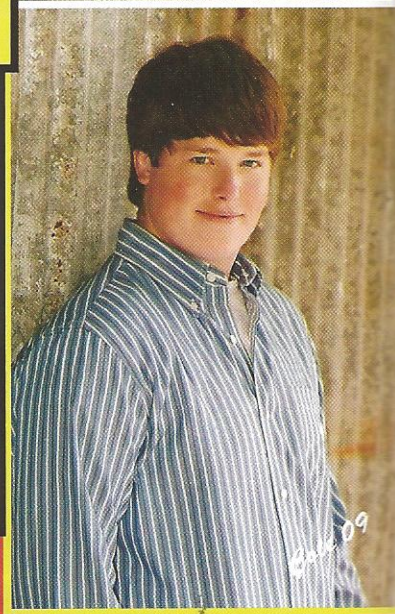

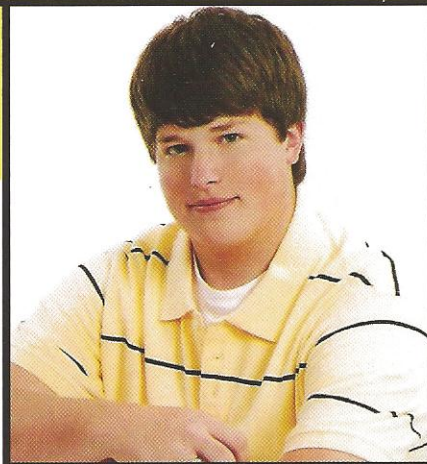

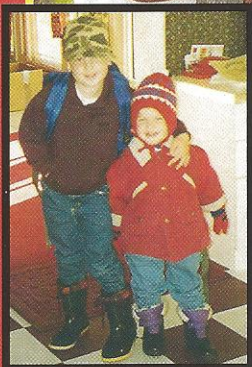

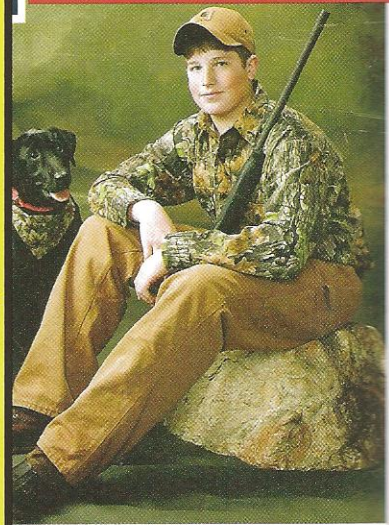

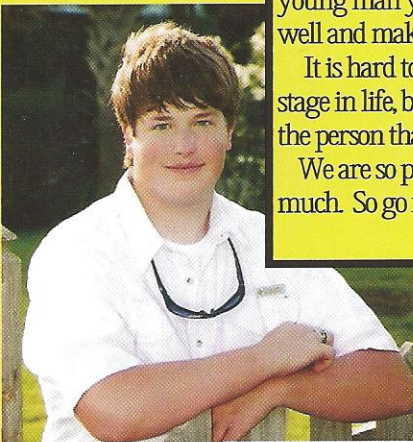

The time has gone by so quickly. It seems like such a short time ago we were bringing our baby boy home from the hospital, and shortly thereafter you were zooming by on your little battery powered truck and shortly after that your real, real Big Red Truck on the highway making your own choices. You have filled our lives with excitement and joy and we love you so much.

You have always been a leader and have always made responsible decisions. That is why we feel good about the young man you have become. We know you will do well and make the right choices in the future.

It is hard to think about you moving on to the next stage in life, but it would be even harder if you were not the person that you have become.

We are so proud to be your parents and we love you so much. So go for it! Your life has just begun.

Love, Momma & Daddy
