Jonathan—
 Where has the time gone? It seems that not so many years ago we were anxiously expecting your arrival. You made quite an entry into the world and into our lives over 18 years ago. This should have been our first sign that you would do anything to get attention. When you were little you were so animated and full of yourself and full of life and brought so much joy to everyone.

You always challenged us. We raised you to first love God, then family and to follow the Golden Rule of "do unto others as you would have them do unto you" and lastly to always do your very best. Always remember the things that we have taught you and you will have much success in God's eyes as well as your family and friends.

The time has come for you to pursue your dreams in the phase of life you are now entering. It is our time to challenge you! Continue to make life fun (like that little boy), exciting and make every day count. We love you very much! Mom and Dad

 Learn from their misfortune
 Learn from their pain
 Believe in something
 Believe in yourself
 Turn adversity into ambition
 Now blossom into wealth.
