Time has passed so quickly. It seems like yesterday you were running around with a pacifier in your mouth and one in each hand! As you begin the next stage in your life, remember that hard work and dedication are the keys to success. Please continue to treat others the way you want to be treated; respect others as well as yourself. You will never know how proud we are of the beautiful, intelligent, and compassionate young lady you have become. Remember that we love you very much and that we are always here for you.

We love you,
Momma and Daddy

Granddaughter,
My my, how time slips away. Seems only yesterday that I was running you down the street and dragging you into pre-school. Just a word of wisdom: Keep the Lord in your life and you can achieve any goal you set. You've grown up to be a beautiful young lady from the inside out.

We love you,
Nana and Pop
