Amber,
 When you were born, your daddy took one look at you and you became "Sweet Pea". You were all bundled up, with your head full of black hair. What a joy you have been to us. We can't believe how 18 years has flown by. I remember your first day of preschool at First Baptist "Pacie" in hand, always the tiniest one in the class, and still are. While we anxiously look forward to you going off to college, we will also be sad because you will not be home for us to see and talk to everyday. But know this; Momma and Daddy wish you much success as you begin the next chapter in your life. Know that we will be looking forward to the phone calls and weekend visits telling us what has been happening in your life.

We Love You,
 Momma, Daddy, and Ashley
