

Varsity Volleyball

After a rocky start, the CPA Volleyball team came back and had a successful season; making it to the state playoffs. CPA welcomed a new coach this year, Ashley Smith, who not long ago played for CPA herself as a setter. She said she stressed the playoff to motivate the girls to win. Which ultimately led them to beating both Dorchester Academy and Calhoun Academy after a tough loss at the beginning of the season.

Although they couldn't pull it off in the playoffs, they fought hard throughout the season and grew as a team.

L-R Top to Bottom: Coach Smith motivates her team to hustle and not let the ball hit the floor. Jacqueline Crosby sets the ball for Kendall Jumper. Chelsi Mescia, Carson Jackson and Meagan Burns take a time out during the game. Kendall Jumper attempts to block the hit and score for CPA. Jacqueline Crosby tries to tip the ball onto the opponents court.
