

Sarah Adkins

Teeny, Tiny Sarah,

It's so hard to believe you are a senior graduating from high school and moving on to college. Where have the days gone? It seems as only yesterday that you and puppy were on your way to preschool and now you are both off to college.

We have watched you grow (well, mature) into a beautiful young lady but you have to know you will always be our little girl. We know you will succeed in college but more importantly in life. You are a good person and that is what we love most about you.

You need to know that no matter what happens in your life, Dad, myself, and Anna will always be here for you. We are a family, we are your family.

We love you more than you will ever know,
Mom & Dad

Sarah,

I cannot believe the time has finally come for you to graduate high school. I know we have been through everything together, but that's what sisters are for! I know you will excel in anything you do as long as you keep your mind set on it. You're a beautiful young lady and I am so proud to have a baby sister like you. Thanks for always being there for me no matter what. Keep your head up and stay in school! I love you so much!!!

Love,
Anna
