

Below: At the First Annual Winter Formal, Jared Carter and Zach Guzman take a break from dancing to show off their goofy sides with props provided by the CPA Student Council.

Every year, the CPA Student Council attends a SCISA Student Council Spring Convention in Myrtle Beach, South Carolina. To help relieve the costs for the exciting trip, several Student Council members decided to hold the First Annual Winter Formal as a fundraiser. The Winter Formal was held on Wednesday, December 19, at the Coastal Electric Outback building. Along with their friends, many CPA students celebrated the end of their tough exams and the beginning of their winter break. The Winter Formal will continue to be an exciting fundraiser for the CPA Student Council.

Left: Mari Beth Nolte, Lexie Murray, Marla Strickland, and Shelly McDonald take a walk down Main Street to show off their Winter Formal dresses.

Above: Celebrating the end of exams and the beginning of winter break, Ashlyn Polk and Lee Riley show off their dance moves at the Coastal Outback building.

PLAY HARD