Sean,

The years have passed so quickly. It seems like only yesterday you were our beautiful baby boy and now you're our tall handsome young man! You have brought so much joy and laughter to our lives. Remember to work hard toward your goals in life, continue to be honest and respectful of others, and above all be thankful for all God's blessings He has given you.

We are very proud of you and wish you success in all that you do.

Love,

Mom and Dad

COBY BRYAN MARTIN

Coby,

We are proud of you and your accomplishments, as we have always been. We have prayed daily for God's hand to be on you, even before you were born. Watching you grow from the little boy in kindergarten with the backpack to the man you have become has been one of the greatest privileges of our lives. You are limited only by your imagination, follow your dreams. Find your passion and run toward it. Laugh and pray often.

Love, Mom, Dad, and Emily
