Meagan,

Where has the time gone? It was only for a short time that we held you in our arms before you were off running, never stopping to ask why or how but instead why not and when. You have continued on that path reaching every goal you've set your mind to and still reaching for more. Over the last seventeen years you have grown into such a beautiful young woman inside and out and we are so proud of you and the person you have become. You never cease to amaze us! Your dad and I could not have asked for a better daughter and I could have not had a better best friend. My heart is full of love and excitement for you as your journey in life begins but yet it is empty at the same time for the little girl who once filled every moment of ours.

Love you always,
Mom and Dad

Dear Sissey,

I want to thank you for being the best sister ever! You are not only my sister but my best friend. I hope you have fun at college and I love you!

Love,
Liv

Dear Meagan,

Life is to laugh often & much; to win the respect of the intelligent people and the affection of children; to earn the appreciation of honest critics and endure the betrayal of false friends; to appreciate beauty; to find the best in others; to leave the world a bit better whether by a healthy child, a garden patch, or a redeemed social condition; to know that one life has breathed easier because you lived here. This is to have succeeded.

We love you,
Me Me and Pa Pa
