

Courtney Paige Kramer

Courtney,
There are so many things we want to say to you as you graduate this year, yet not enough pages or great enough words to convey our feelings. But we must share this with you.

As a little girl you would start each day (bright and early I might add) by asking me "What are we going to do today?" It's time now for you to ask yourself that question each and every day. And I know from watching you grow and mature over these last 4 years that you are ready and will answer this wisely, creating a wonderful future for yourself and many sweet memories. I look forward to calling you each day to find out what you are going to do today, Courtney Pooh Bear!

We are so proud of you and your accomplishments, always holding yourself to a higher standard and pushing yourself harder than we ever could. This attribute will take you far in life, but we want you to remember to take time to have fun along the way.

You always want to be able to say "Remember when", not "What if".

Your dad, Scott and I will miss you so much. But we are only a phone call or text away! (Remember Girls' State. I promise I won't face time you. LOL!) We will always be there for you, anytime, day or night!

Love you to the moon and back!!
Mom, Dad, and Scott
