

Jacqueline Crosby

There was a little girl years ago who prayed for a baby sister. She promised she would love, cherish, protect, and keep her safe. She promised no matter what she looked like or how she acted that she would always have a best friend and she would always be loved. Prayer is a wonderful thing, because without it I wouldn't have gotten the blessing of having you as my sister. God answered my prayer with perfection. He gave me a sister who is beautiful, smart, and talented. I wish you the best of luck and I promise I will always be waiting on you to come home, be proud of you, protect you, and always love you. Jacqueline, always remember during this path you are about to travel to always pray because God answers prayers! He gave me you! Sissy

We never had it easy. For many years it was just you & me. We played games, laughed, and just talked. We still do. I am very lucky to have such a special person like you in my life. Not only are you my son but you are my friend. We have always been there for each other, no matter what. No matter where life leads you, no matter what you do I will always be your biggest fan & always be here for you.

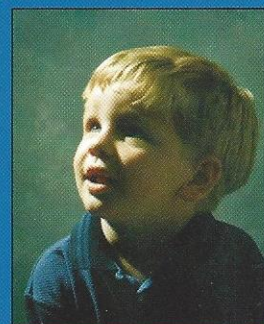

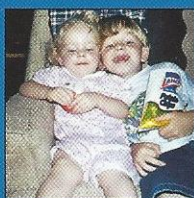

I am so proud of the man you have become, and for the warm giving heart you share with everyone you meet. I am so proud to call you my son!

I love you so very much,
MOM

You are the best grandson in the world!

I love you, Papa
