

Henry Varn

Dear Henry,
 It's difficult to express the sadness, joy, and pride we are feeling today. We cannot believe how quickly time has flown by. It seems like only yesterday when God blessed us with a son. Your two sisters were so excited to have a baby brother! During your early years of life, we knew God blessed you with a special gift. We always laughed about that day in first grade in the library at school when the lady looked at you and said this was a chapter book which was too hard for you. You told her that was okay because you had already read it! Over the years we have seen the compassionate, determined, and wise young man that you have become, and how you have used your gift wisely through school. We are so proud of you and what you have accomplished. Your wisdom and inquisitive nature will take you on unlimited journeys in college and beyond. Always remember to be a leader, not a follower and excel in all you attempt. Remember we are always here no matter what and that we love you so much.
 Mother and Daddy.

We are so proud of what you have accomplished, and the young man you have become. Stay true to yourself in college and through the rest of your life.
 Love, Grandparents.

I can't believe you are graduating! Seems like yesterday when we were playing together and now we've had our ups and downs, but we've always been there for each other and will continue to be.
 Love you junior! Elizabeth

Congrats Little Brother and Unc Henry! We are very proud of what you have accomplished!!! Love, Fay, Brad, and Lillian
