

Alex -

We are so proud of you and the beautiful person you have become. May the rest of your journey bring you happiness and success. You are destined for great things and we are so glad we can be a part of it. Always stay true to your heart, believe in yourself, be open to new experiences, make good choices and be proud of your accomplishments. Take pride in how far you have come and have faith in how far you can go. Love always,
Dad, Stacey, Lauren, Ryan and Kinley

My sweet Ally Ra-Ra,
You were one of my biggest and best surprises; my adorable, kind-hearted, loving, brown-eyed girl! Not that long ago you were excited to graduate to "the hill" at the Honeytree. Now we all share in the same kind of excitement as we watch and help you prepare for college! I have so many priceless memories of you: rocking doll babies, adamantly requesting "brown frocolate milk" and accepting no substitutes, fork noises, shopping, and watching you cheer and play soccer. My fondest memories are from our many car rides to Virginia. They were always filled with great conversation and LOTS of singing, but they also kept us close.

You have grown into a responsible, respectful young lady and possess the integrity and determination to accomplish anything you put your mind to. Never forget that! We will always support you and be there for you! Wherever you go and whatever you do, always keep God in your heart and the rest will fall into place.

Love,
Mom & Sid

Ra-Ra, I will miss you around the house, but now I finally get my own bathroom! Good luck at college! Love, Garrett

Alexandra Blair Sanders

