Taylor,

Because of you we hold the highest and most esteemed title, "parent!" God blessed us the day you were born. We pray that as you move forward into the next phase of this wild ride called life that you will continue to SHINE for Him. You have so much potential and with God all things are possible; so don't hold back, be everything He intended you to be! Daddy and I love you, babygirl, and we can't wait to see what your future holds. "For I know the plans I have for you, declares the Lord, plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future." Jeremiah 29:11

Taylor has always been an okay sis ;-). She is always there for me when I need her, she has even been there when I didn't need her with me; but she knew that I needed someone even when I said I didn't. She stuck with me when I was mad, and she even helped me sometimes when I was in trouble (mother never knew). All in all, Taylor has been a great sis and I'm happy that she made it to college (for more than one reason).
Love you sis!
