

Mr. and Miss War Hawk

Each year the faculty and staff of Colleton Prep vote for Mr. and Miss War Hawk. The title is given to two seniors, one boy and one girl, based on their academic achievement, athletic ability, and leadership skills. This year the title was awarded to Ally Knight and Scott Kramer.

Ally plays varsity volleyball and softball and has been awarded HSSR All-State in both sports. Ally has also gotten All-Region in both sports in past years. She served as the varsity volleyball captain and has earned a Best Defense Award 3 consecutive years. She is the Student Body treasurer, National Honor Society president and is also co-editor of the Talon. She plans on majoring in Health Science after she graduates.

Scott plays varsity football. He was awarded All-State and All-Region. He also played in the SCISA 1A North-South All-Star game. He was awarded best defensive lineman in 2013. He is the Student Body President and has been in National Honor Society for the past 3 years. He plans on majoring in Biology college with a focus on pre-pharmacy.

Mr. and Miss Talon

Each year the Colleton Prep high school students vote for Mr. and Miss Talon. The title is given to two seniors, one boy and one girl, who they believe is best all around. This year Marla Strickland and Brian Murdaugh received this title.

Marla has lettered in varsity basketball, softball and cheerleading. She served as the captain of both basketball and cheerleading. She is the secretary for both National Honor Society and Student Body. She is the Student Life editor for the Talon. She plans to major in Radiology after she graduates.

Brian plays varsity football and baseball. He was awarded All-State and All-Region for both. He also played in the SCISA 1A North-South All-Star game. Brian was the SCISA 1A Offensive Player of the Year. He is the Class President and has been in National Honor Society for the past 3 years. He plans on majoring in business at The Citadel.
