

COMPETITION CHEERLEADING

Top: Bracers, Katie Goodwin and Ally Crook, prepare to toss Taylor Tomedolskey at the beginning of the routine. Bottom left: Bracers, Taylor Tomedolskey and Katie Goodwin, spin and flip Ally Crook in the pyramid. Bottom right: The team gathers together for a group picture - Brynn Nettles, Katie Goodwin, Kayleigh Peters, Kayla Hayden, Elizabeth Anne Dean, Coach Meagan Driggers, Kaylee Warren, Taylor Tomedolskey, Ally Crook, Ally Avant, Gracie Griffin, Nina Mescia, Heather Davis, and Jordan Slocum.

Left: Kaylee Warren is all smiles while performing the routine. Middle: The team gathers one last time to wait for the results at state. Right: Bracers, Taylor Tomedolskey and Katie Goodwin, flip Ally Crook.

The competition team is more than an average team. It is a family made up of girls from sixth grade to twelfth grade. With having such a wide range of age groups the team had many more obstacles to overcome than any other team. The girls had to start from the beginning. Each of the girls put their hearts into a sport that only gave them two minutes and thirty seconds to show the judges and crowd what they could do. Competing takes courage and motivation. The team started their long journey at the end of school in May.

Above: The three seniors pause for a moment to take a picture with the second place trophy.

Contributing long hours, sweat, tears, and blood the wide range of ages just became a number as the team became a family. From trying new stunts to Coach Meagan saying full out one more time the team represented CPA with an exceptional routine at every competition. The bond between the girls has grown and will continue to grow for many years to come. The memories they have built as a team will forever be cherished by each teammate.

