

William Michael Riley

Will,
 We can't believe the time has come for you to graduate from high school! From the moment you were born, you have been fiercely independent and always ready to take on your next challenge!
 We always knew that you could take care of yourself and others. You have grown into a young man who we are very proud of and so glad that you are our son! We are proud that you have decided to take the road less traveled for college. We know that now you have set your mind to this, there will be no turning you back!
 Please always remember that no matter where you are and what you are doing, we are your biggest supporters and we will always be there if you need us! We are going to miss you terribly, but we know that it is time for you to go out into the world and decide your course in life. Most importantly, please remember how very much we love you always and forever!

Love,
 Mom and Dad

Will,
 Tough times don't last, tough people do. You are a tough kid and you will go far in life. Stick to your gut and don't let anyone tell you how to live your life. Take your losses on the chin and your wins with a grain of salt. Love ya bro!

Lee
