Haley,

As I write this my tears are tears of happiness. You have been a true blessing since the day you were born. These 18 years have flown by and we have watched you grow into a beautiful young woman. You were and still are such a happy child! Your outer beauty but more importantly your inner beauty make you shine above all. Your love for God and others has always been one of your best qualities. As we have watched you grow into the amazing person you have become, we have often thought we wish we could have been half the student, friend, teammate and sibling that you have been to all you come in contact with. You are one of our proudest moments in life! As parents, we have always said to Do Your Best in Everything and that you did!! Your accomplishments from the time you were born until now exceed anything we could have ever done. Never take anything in life for granted! Learn from your mistakes which will make you wiser. But most of all, love yourself and love others. God has a special plan for you, Haley! Chase those dreams and remember we are always here for you.

We love you!
Mom & Dad

Haley,

I can't begin to tell you how proud I am of you. There is no limit to the things you can accomplish as long as you stay true to yourself and trust in the Lord. Thank you for being a good sister, friend, and someone Shylah and Carter can look up to. You deserve all the things life has to offer.

Love You Always, Sissy
