

Kayla Virginia Hayden

Dear Kayla,
As I write this message to you, I am happy and sad. I am happy because I am so proud of the young woman you have become. You are smart and beautiful- inside and out. Your qualities of loyalty, compassion, and forgiveness of others have helped make you the special person you are. I am also happy because I am excited for you and what your future holds for you. I am sad because you are my youngest so this is a bittersweet milestone for me. I will miss you so much!
As you begin your college years, have fun but make good decisions, stay focused on your goals, and always remember that I love you very much.

Love,
Mama

I can't believe you are about to leave for college considering it seems like yesterday you were my "little duckling". I am so proud of who you have grown up to be. I know you are going to do great in college and conquer all of your goals and dreams. If you ever need a laugh while you are away just think, "Haters are your motivators"! Always remember I am a phone call away if you need anything and I will always be here for you!

Love you,
Dada

"What lies behind us, and what lies before us are small matters compared to what lies within us" - Ralph Waldo Emerson
I am incredibly proud to be your big sis! What lies within you is destined for greatness! You are already greater than me.

Love Always,
Jennifer

