

Jason Hunter Walling

Jason:

It's hard to believe our "baby" is almost 18 years old and is graduating high school! My how time flies! You are such a thoughtful, kind, respectful young man. There is rarely a dull moment when you are around. You keep everyone laughing. Of course you can be very stubborn at times too! Football at CPA will not be the same for us. We have enjoyed every moment of watching you on that football field! We will really miss those "Friday Night Lights!" You continue to make us proud of you and we know beyond a shadow of a doubt what a fine adult you will become. We love you for who you are. Remember to always work hard and put 110% into everything you do. Believe everything happens for a reason. Always be a leader and not a follower and stand up for what is right. As you head out into this world, always remember that we are your family and will always be here for you! Our doors are always open! Don't forget that you can do anything you put your mind to. Learn from your mistakes. Never look behind, what's done is done. Be wise and look ahead.

We love you!
Dad and Mom

JJ-

Cannot believe my baby brother is about to graduate high school. Know that I am always here for you, no matter what. Never forget where you came from, always strive to do your best, and most importantly have fun. I am going to miss you so much next year, but I know you will do great things in college. I love you!!!

Love,
Meg

Big boys ready

