

Class Will

We, the Senior Class of 1954, of Cottageville High School, state of S. C., county of Colleton, town of Cottageville, being of sane mind and sound body, realizing our importance and our present dignity as being Seniors, realizing also that we will soon depart this life to go our many different ways, do hereby declare this to be our last will and testament.

SECTION 1

Article 1: We do hereby will and bequeath to our Principal, Mr. A. M. Anderson, our sincere thanks for his wise guidance during our high school days.

Article 2: We leave to the faculty our appreciation and love for their unceasing efforts to aid us in our work.

Article 3: To our parents we will our most loyal devotion for the many sacrifices they have made that we might have the opportunity to come thus far.

Article 4: To the Junior Class we leave our ability to get out of class.

SECTION 11

Article 1: I, Patricia Ackerman, do hereby will my basketball suit to Carrie Moye Smith wishing her the best of luck in her basketball career. To Mary Youmans, I leave my locker hoping she won't get hit in the face as often as I did.

Article 2: I, Bernice Bailey, do hereby will to Connie Mae Hoff my job as reporter on the newspaper staff, hoping she gets the news in more often than I have.

Article 3: I, Gwen Ackerman, do hereby will to De Anna Davis my ability to cut hair, hoping her mother doesn't hide the scissors as often as mine did. To Jon Ann Reeves, I leave my locker.

Article 4: I, Gene Cone, do hereby will to Jay Ackerman my ability to talk Mrs. Crosby out of having a typing class hoping he won't have to type as many letters as I have.

Article 5: I, Helen Hoff, do hereby will to Jon Ann Reeves my ability to type, hoping she learns to type ten words a minute as quick as I did. To Betty Jean McMillian I leave my ability to giggle hoping she doesn't get called down as much as I did.

Article 6: I, Maxine Hoff, do hereby will to Lenora Hoff, my ability to make the bus driver wait on her every morning, hoping one morning she doesn't get the big surprise of being left. To Edna Reed I leave my ability to giggle hoping she doesn't have to be called down as many times as I did.

Article 7: I, Charles Griffith, do hereby will my position on the basketball team to Bobby Free, hoping he helps win as many trophies as I have.

Article 8: I, Evelyn Adams, do hereby will my ability to keep the bus waiting to Elaine Adams hoping her alarm clock works as well as mine did. To Myrtle Cond, I leave my ability to talk in class, hoping she won't get caught as many times as I have.

Article 9: I, Delmer Rowe, do hereby will my physique to Jay Ackerman, hoping he doesn't have to exercise as much as I have.