Foreword

Among our feeling of triumph there is also a feeling of sadness within our hearts, for we realize that our last days are spent at Cottageville School. Many wonderful days we have spent together, sharing with each other our joys and sorrows, will always remain within our memories.

Now that the time has come when we must bade farewell, we wish to say that no matter how far away we may be our thoughts shall be constantly centered around the days that were spent at Cottageville School.

May the CYPRESS AND PINE reveal the many wonderful memories of our highschool days and keep them locked forever within our hearts.

Senior Snapshots

SENIORS IN THE THIRD GRADE

Class Poem

Across the sea, a ship came sailing,
As it had sailed in years before;
To anchor the Cottageville Seniors
Upon the graduation shore.

Twelve years our ship had sailed
Proudly over waters blue;
Twelve years it had not failed
To prove loyal, faithful, and true.

There were times our ship was hard to steer
Because of waves that dashed so high;
But our captain bade us not to fear,
For soon the shore would be nigh.

As we sailed over waters deep,
Over smooth and rugged ways,
Time silently upon us did creep
To end the voyage of our school days.

As our ship drew near the desired shore,
There was a sadness within our heart;
For with our classmates we'd be no more,
And from our school we must depart.

As our ship drew near the harbor of our goal,
Which in reaching we've known both joy and strife,
We know not what for us the future will hold,
But with heads held high, we face a new life.

Evelyn Adams
Class Poet

Class History

Twelve years ago, September, 1942, eighteen boys and girls entered Cottageville School, to begin a long career. Mrs. Ethel Willis, our first grade teacher saw us in many moods as this was a new and different world for us. Our anticipation was alert for our new adventure. Under our teachers' guidance we soon became adjusted and found happiness and fun in learning the new and different things in our first year at school.

As our grammar school days passed slowly, our minds became more developed and we began to realize the seriousness of school and what it would someday mean to us. During this time, we all had one high ideal centered upon our minds, reaching high school.

In the seventh grade, the merit award for good citizenship was awarded to Patricia Ackerman and Charles Griffith. During our grammar school days many of our classmates left us. Some of these pupils entered different schools.

In September, 1950, we entered upon our most wonderful high school days. We were introduced to our new name, freshmen. We also became acquainted with a more complicated and interesting routine. Some of us were asked to serve at the Junior-Senior Banquet and others began to take part in the basketball activities. At this time, three of our classmates dropped out, Eva Hughes, Maggie Lee Ackerman, and Franklin Burke.

Soon, we found ourselves entering the sophomore class. We entered with great enthusiasm and the ability to accomplish things, but we did not exert ourselves, by studying. Some of us were honored by invitations to the Junior-Senior Banquet. Carol Lee Davis, joined us during our Sophomore Class, but we also lost four other members, Buddy Ackerman, Dorothy Hughes, T. C. Carrol, and Edith O'Quinn. This left us thirteen members. The honor this year, was bestowed upon Evelyn Adams, as Miss J.H.A.

Our Junior year was one of many enjoyable events. We began with a new addition to our class, Edith Dodd. The first of the year, we received our rings. This was the occasion we had long awaited. Next came our junior play, "Sing for your Supper," which was a real hit. Then came the Junior-Senior Banquet and all the other wonderful things that could possibly happen to make you a happy, dignified Junior. Our Junior year will always remain in our hearts, as a most cherished year of high school days. We lost another member of our class during this time, Ruth Bazzle.

Seniors at last! We began our senior year with three of our classmates missing, J.L. Langdale, McNeill Ackerman and Edith Dodd. This left us eleven members. Our Senior year was full of tasks, both great and small. There was studying, ordering invitations, senior play, and all the other social activities that go along with seniors. It was fun, even though it was a year of greater concentration. To our sorrow, we lost two seniors, Carol Lee Davis and Edward Rhode. This left us only nine members in the senior class.

Twelve years we have waited for this wonderful time to come. Even though we started out with eighteen, only nine have come to the end of a completed task, as far as high school is concerned. It also leaves a deep sorrow in our hearts to know that we will no longer be coming to Cottageville High School. Some of us will go to college, some in service, and some will probably take up the art of homemaking. But wherever we are we will always remember the wonderful faculty and students and wish that they will have as much success in reaching their goal as we have had.

Class Prophecy

January 11, 1964

Dear Helen,

After so many years I thought I'd never hear from you again. I'm glad to know you got your Home Ec degree and is now teaching in Chicago, Ill. I guess you'd like to hear about the rest of the classmates. Well as for me I'm practicing nursing at Roper Hospital. Guess who is the head nurse there? None other than our old classmate, Patricia Ackerman.

Last summer on my vacation in Jacksonville, Fla. whom should I meet but Evelyn Adams. She's doing quite well as religious educational director. She was engaged then so I guess she's married by now.

Thank you for sending me that picture of Charles Griffith that came out of the sports page of the CHICAGO TRIBUTE. Who would have ever thought he would have this opportunity of being third baseman for the Chicago White Sox!

Guess what Gene Cone is doing now? He's agriculture teacher at good old CHS. Remember how he always said he hated to leave Cottageville.

Coming back from my vacation last summer, guess who was the hostess for the plane trip from Charleston to Paris? She was our old classmate, Maxine Hoff.

Remember Delmer Rowe? He was home last week. He has really hit the high spots. He has the rank of a general in the air force. Remember how he used to talk about it?

I read in the BAPTIST COURIER last week that Bernice Bailey is a missionary in China. She's coming home next week.

Well, I wish you luck in your career and hope to see you soon.

As ever,
Gwen

Class Will

We, the Senior Class of 1954, of Cottageville High School, state of S. C., county of Colleton, town of Cottageville, being of sane mind and sound body, realizing our importance and our present dignity as being Seniors, realizing also that we will soon depart this life to go our many different ways, do hereby declare this to be our last will and testament.

SECTION 1

Article 1: We do hereby will and bequeath to our Principal, Mr. A. M. Anderson, our sincere thanks for his wise guidance during our high school days.

Article 2: We leave to the faculty our appreciation and love for their unceasing efforts to aid us in our work.

Article 3: To our parents we will our most loyal devotion for the many sacrifices they have made that we might have the opportunity to come thus far.

Article 4: To the Junior Class we leave our ability to get out of class.

SECTION 11

Article 1: I, Patricia Ackerman, do hereby will my basketball suit to Carrie Moye Smith wishing her the best of luck in her basketball career. To Mary Youmans, I leave my locker hoping she won't get hit in the face as often as I did.

Article 2: I, Bernice Bailey, do hereby will to Connie Mae Hoff my job as reporter on the newspaper staff, hoping she gets the news in more often than I have.

Article 3: I, Gwen Ackerman, do hereby will to De Anna Davis my ability to cut hair, hoping her mother doesn't hide the scissors as often as mine did. To Jon Ann Reeves, I leave my locker.

Article 4: I, Gene Cone, do hereby will to Jay Ackerman my ability to talk Mrs. Crosby out of having a typing class hoping he won't have to type as many letters as I have.

Article 5: I, Helen Hoff, do hereby will to Jon Ann Reeves my ability to type, hoping she learns to type ten words a minute as quick as I did. To Betty Jean McMillian I leave my ability to giggle hoping she doesn't get called down as much as I did.

Article 6: I, Maxine Hoff, do hereby will to Lenora Hoff, my ability to make the bus driver wait on her every morning, hoping one morning she doesn't get the big surprise of being left. To Edna Reed I leave my ability to giggle hoping she doesn't have to be called down as many times as I did.

Article 7: I, Charles Griffith, do hereby will my position on the basketball team to Bobby Free, hoping he helps win as many trophies as I have.

Article 8: I, Evelyn Adams, do hereby will my ability to keep the bus waiting to Elaine Adams hoping her alarm clock works as well as mine did. To Myrtle Cond, I leave my ability to talk in class, hoping she won't get caught as many times as I have.

Article 9: I, Delmer Rowe, do hereby will my physique to Jay Ackerman, hoping he doesn't have to exercise as much as I have.
