

Class Will

We, the class of nineteen hundred and fifty-six of Cottageville High School, County of Colleton, State of South Carolina, being of sane mind and sound body, realizing also that we must soon depart this life, do hereby declare this to be our last will and testament.

SECTION I

- Article 1. We do hereby will and bequeath to Mrs. Turner our appreciation and thanks for her patience and understanding during the past year.
- Article 2. We do hereby will and bequeath to our mothers and fathers our love and devotion for their sacrifices and understanding, and for helping us through the past twelve years.
- Article 3. We do hereby will and bequeath to the faculty our thanks for helping us in our work.
- Article 4. We do hereby will and bequeath to the junior class our ability to raise money, hoping they will be as successful as we were.

SECTION II

- Article 1. I, Elaine Adams, do hereby will and bequeath to Betty Jean McMillian my ability to talk and chew gum in Mrs. Turner's room, hoping that she won't get caught as many times as I did.
- Article 2. I, Sarah Perry, do hereby will and bequeath to Lula Mae Adams my walk, hoping she doesn't get teased as much as I have.
- Article 3. I, Kathleen Benton, do hereby will and bequeath to Betty Nettles my temper, hoping she will be able to control it better than I have.
- Article 4. I, Rodgernelle Cattels, do hereby will and bequeath to Mary Ruth Adams my vocabulary, hoping she will be better understood than I have been.
- Article 5. I, Elizabeth Adams, do hereby will and bequeath to Alice Hoff my naturally curly hair, hoping she won't have to use as many permanents as I have.
- Article 6. I, Mary Youmans, do hereby will and bequeath to Patsy Tuten my loud mouth, hoping she will make better use of it in cheerleading than I did but won't get called down in class and in the hall as often as I did.
