

Congratulations, Bill!

Some siblings invade a perfect "only child" existence and leave lasting marks. But sometimes a brother touches an older sister's life, becomes a fun playmate, and then sneaks up on her heart and grabs it. Bill, you are a great guy, and I know that my life has been blessed by the magic of yours. Thank you for being My little brother.

Congratulations on your graduation! I wish for you a future straight out of your dreams.

Love,

Dana
