

Any leadership position represents an opportunity for growth and a means to develop admirable traits such as dependability, organization, and perseverance. I welcomed the challenge of being Editor of the 2002 Challenger, and I know that I am a better person for my experience. I want to thank Mrs. Karen Schwendinger for believing in me and for entrusting me with this significant responsibility. She is an inspiring mentor whose kindness and constant reassurance made my job much easier. I also want to thank my very dedicated and capable staff. Their creative efforts are reflected in each and every spread of our book. And to Mary and Callie, thank you for all your hard work as Business Managers. I couldn't have asked for two better people to help me with this huge task. I am very proud of our work, and I know that we all will look back at this yearbook with fondness for the rest of our lives. As I prepare to end my years at Dorchester Academy, I want to thank everyone who has touched me—academically, athletically, and personally. To the Class of 2002: Godspeed us all to the future we are dreaming of!

Sincerely,
Danielle Lynne Watson

Being Co-Business Manager for the 2002 yearbook has been one of the most challenging experiences in my life. Even though the yearbook took up most of my time, it was worth it. I would like to thank all of our supporters, Mr. Berry, the Challenger staff, Callie, and "Miss" Karen. Mr. Berry provided us with many pictures that were much needed. I want to thank the Challenger staff for selling all of their ads and working hard everyday. Most of all I would like to extend a huge thank you to Callie and "Miss" Karen. They always were there to keep my head on straight and answer all of my questions. Without them, I would have gone absolutely crazy. I would also like to thank our Editor, Danielle, for keeping everyone on the right track. I hope everyone enjoys the 2002 yearbook and cherishes the memories that is in it. Good Luck to the Class of 2002; this annual's for you, you will always be my boo! I Love you all.

Sincerely,
Mary Evelyn Snyder

Being Co-Business Manager of the 2002 Challenger has been one of the biggest responsibilities of my life. I met the challenges, but I know that I wouldn't have without lots of help from many people. I would like to thank the Challenger staff for all of their participation in selling ads. I would also like to say a special thank you to those who cropped pictures and helped me get my pages finished. Without all of you croppers, I wouldn't have met my deadlines! Mary, thank you so much for all your help. I don't know how anyone could do this by themselves. I am glad we worked as a team to complete the ad section of our yearbook. To Danielle, you did a great job laying out everything and keeping everything in order. Most importantly I would like to thank Mrs. Karen. We would never have made this yearbook what it is without your guidance. You made this year's Challenger possible. To the Class of 2002, I love you and I hope that you will enjoy this yearbook as much as I will.

Sincerely,
Callie Ann Stephens
