

Being a Business Manager of the 2002-2003 Challenger has been an honor to me. It has also taught me many things. One of the most important things I've learned this year is responsibility. I had to be able to meet deadlines. Meeting those deadlines required a lot of work, such as: drawing pages, cropping pictures, and typing text. All of these things would have never gotten done if it was not for the entire Challenger Staff. Mrs. Karen, thank you so much for answering ALL my questions. You didn't care if you had answered them 1 or 100 times you always smiled and answered me again. I could have never gotten through this year without you! Fay, Sara, and Nikki, thank you for always being there to lend a hand and for your patience that you'll had with me. Sam, words cannot express how much you helped me this year. I'm not good in English and you helped me with that.

Thank you for proofreading all of my pages and never complaining! Minus, Myer, Brandon, Drew, and Justin, thank you for basically doing anything that I asked you to do, whether it was hand me an envelope, sharpen a cropping pencil, or run an errand. All those little things you'll did saved me a lot of time. Casey, Hayley, Ashley, and Jennifer, well.....you'll weren't really in class that much but you'll always offered to help if I needed you. HLAHLA!!! I hope you'll are the high scorers on all those computer games!!! This yearbook should be amazing and it's because of everyone's hard work. Thank you!!! With the little bit of free time I had between school and work I had between school and work I made some great memories with my friends. Nikki, Casey, Ashley, Clark, Brandon, Trivico, Minus, Greg, "AC", and "Goat", I will never forget Duke's Billiards. Shooting pool after school with all of you has been awesome. It was all fun with the exception of a few injuries that occurred when Brandon was shooting!!! I know none of us will forget Clark with his "pool temper" (everytime he lost he automatically had somewhere to go — you know I love you Clark!). Everyone needs to be looking for Trivico on ESPN because he's going to be a professional "pool table sweeper!" I'll always remember my conversations with Greg, AC, Goat, and Minus about "Jenny" or "Jerry". Nikki, Casey, and Ashley.....what can I say??? You'll never would play pool cause you'll were too scared of loosing to me!!! HLAHLA!!! I love all of you'll and will miss you'll next year. Seniors, I hope 2003 hasn't been just another year for you'll because it sure hasn't been for me. I'll miss all of you and I hope all of you aim high and reach your goals!!!!!!

Sincerely,

Angela Lynn Eadon
